PRICE TWO CENTS

CITY BOND SALES REACH 93 PER CENT OF QUOTA

Total of Subscriptions to Third Liberty Loan in St. Louis Today Reaches $36,501,750.

INCREASE IN 24 HOURS $4,495,650

Late Pledges Came Largely From Small Buyers—Campaign Still Has Three Days to Run.

PRESIDENT TO BUY "ON THE PLAN"

WASHINGTON, May 1 (By A. P.).—The "buy another bond" appeal reached President Wilson today, and although he already had subscribed for nearly $20,000 of Third Liberty Bonds, he agreed to buy a $50 bond on the installment plan, in accordance with the standard suggestion of the "buy another" solicitors.

Since this appeal is sounded particularly by four-minute speakers at theaters, the President said he would enter this subscription formally some evening this week when he attends a theater. He added that he hoped a million or more other Americans would "buy another bond."

The St. Louis total of subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan jumped today to $36,501,750, an increase of $4,495,650 over yesterday, and 93 per cent of the city's quota of $39,107,350. This increase was more than three times as large as any recent 24-hours increase. Three more days of the campaign remain after today.

Thomas H. West, chairman of the city campaign committee, said the increase came mostly in small subscriptions, and he ascribed it to the final effect of the many appeals made to the public in the last week, to bring the city up to its quota.

"We are beginning to see a daylight," West remarked. "But there is a chance yet for those who have not done their duty. Certain ones may hold back, and the city may still raise its quota, but it will be because certain persons let others do their duty for them. Can anyone occupy such a position with credit?"

Yesterday's announcement of totals showed that the St. Louis Federal Reserve District, as a whole, had subscribed $137,226,050, or 121 per cent of its quota. At the same time the city of St. Louis and St. Louis County, with subscriptions of $32,007,100, had reached 92 per cent of its $34,650,000 quota.

The following table shows the progress of the loan, up to noon yesterday, in the various states comprising the St. Louis District:

State	Amount Subscribed	Percent of Quota
Arkansas	$10,700,400	122
Illinois	23,121,800	127
Indiana	12,379,400	127
Kentucky	24,954,900	154
Mississippi	8,155,250	114
Missouri	28,969,000	124
Tennessee	9,197,000	96
St. Louis (city)	32,007,100	92
St. Louis County	1,197,000	82
Totals	$137,226,050	121

One of the corporation subscriptions in today's list was that of the Judge & Dolph Drug Co., owners of four large retail drug stores, for $500.

ALLIES HOLD IMPORTANT CONFERENCE AT VERSAILLES

Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Orlando and War Council Representatives Present.

VERSAILLES, May 1 (By A. P.).—An important conference of the allied nations opens here today and will be carried over to tomorrow.

Kaiser Says Germans Will Put British Back in the English Channel

EMPEROR WILLIAM appears to have been an interested and active visitor in the Flanders region yesterday. "According to prisoners, he has been making his usual flamboyant speeches to troops, and he stated the other day that the Germans were trying to separate the French and British armies, adding characteristically that the Germans were going to 'put the British back on the English Channel, where they belonged.'"

PRINZIP, ASSASSIN OF THE AUSTRIAN ARCHDUKE, DIES

Man Whose Act Led to War Expires of Tuberculosis in Prison Fortress.

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—Gavrilo Princip, the assassin of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his wife, at Sarajevo, Bosnia, died yesterday in a fortress near Prague of tuberculosis, telegraphs the correspondent at The Hague of the Exchange Telegraph Co.

Prinzip shot to death the Austrian Archduke and his wife while they were on a visit to the Bosnian capital on June 28, 1914, resulting in Austrian demands on Serbia which brought on the great war.

Prinzip, who was a student, was found guilty, and sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment. Prinzip fired two explosive bullets from a revolver at the Austrian heir apparent, the first striking the Duchess of Hohenberg, the Archduke's morganatic wife, in the abdomen, and the second taking effect in the neck of the Archduke. Both bullets caused death within a short time.

Earlier in the day Medoelo Garbinovic, a typhoid Serbian national, had thrown a bomb which the Archduke ward off with his arm so that it exploded some distance from his automobile. The bomb injured six persons. Garbinovic was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment. Four other conspirators were sentenced to death by hanging, one to life imprisonment, and one to 20 years in jail.

8885 ADDITIONAL DRAFTED MEN TO BE MOBILIZED MAY 16

Call, Issued Today, Is for Men to Be Given Course of Training in Mechanical Studies.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (By A. P.).—A call for 8885 additional drafted men was issued today by the Provost Marshal-General. They are to be sent to 22 institutions scattered throughout the country for a two months' course of training in various mechanical studies.

The men will be mobilized May 16 with the exception of those from Virginia, who will be called May 22. They will receive training in auto mechanics and chauffeurs, machinists, blacksmiths, sheet metal workers, general mechanics, carpenters, electricians, radio operators, concrete workers and telegraphers. They will be unassigned until after the completion of their course.

ACQUITTED AFTER KILLING MAN WHO CURSED AMERICAN FLAG

Retired Sea Captain at Honolulu Given Freedom After Jury Deliberates Six Minutes.

HONOLULU, T. H., May 1 (By A. P.).—A jury after deliberating six minutes today acquitted Capt. Henry Allen, retired sea captain, who April 14 last shot and killed S. J. Walker for cursing the American flag.

Immediately following his acquittal, Allen was surrounded by soldiers who draped a flag about him and formed a bodyguard about him as he left the court.

Walker, in a dying statement to police, admitted that he had been shot after he had condemned the United States and expressed the wish that all American soldiers in Europe would be killed.

CITY ENGINEERS A MAJOR IN ARMY CONSTRUCTION DIVISION

Charles E. Smith, who for two and one-half years has been consulting engineer for the city, today received notice of his commission as a Major in the construction division of the United States Army. He announced he would depart for Washington Saturday and that he might be assigned to railroad construction work in France.

Smith recently fixed $50,000,000 as the valuation of the United Railways and that figure was used in the franchise ordinance. His last work for the city, uncompleted, has been planning the railroad connection of the free bridge with Terminal and other tracks.

Governor's Six Sons in Service. COLUMBIA, S. C., May 1 (By A. P.).—When Vice M. Manning became a private in a field artillery regiment at Camp Jackson here today, Gov. Manning of South Carolina saw his sixth son enter the service of the nation. The others are all preceded by Vice Manning, an all-around man, one Major, two Captains, a Sergeant and a private.

CROWDS STORM JUNIOR LEAGUE RUMMAGE SALE

Hundreds of Customers Served in First Hour While Other Hundreds Surge Against Entrance.

POLICE CALLED TO CONTROL THE RUSH

Sale Given for the Benefit of Rehabilitation Schools for the Battle-Worn Soldiers of Great War.

The Junior League's four-day rummage sale at Tenth street and Franklin avenue opened at 9 o'clock this morning. Veritable storm troops of bargain hunters and second-hand clothing dealers rushed the police, swarmed into the building and almost disorganized the previously created system to serve customers in order of arrival. Police reserves arrived in time to support the wavering line of Junior League girls.

It is expected the sale will net about $10,000, most of which will be expended in establishing a training school for girls to become nurses in physical rehabilitation schools after the war.

The sale was advertised to start promptly at 9 o'clock. An hour before the appointed time several hundred women, many with babies in arms and others with children following them, gathered before the building.

At 10:30 o'clock Mrs. Robert Holland, chairman of the sales, estimated that 600 customers had been counted, and still the crowd outside did not appear to be diminished.

ED. RICKENBACHER, NOW U. S. AVIATOR, HELPS DOWN FLYER

Former Auto Racer, Who Later Was Chauffeur for Gen. Pershing, One of Two Victorious Airmen.

FOUGHT DUEL OVER AMERICAN TRENCHES

German Made Desperate Attempt to Escape, but Was Pursued and Sent Down Behind His Lines.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, April 30 (By A. P.).—A German airplane was brought down in enemy territory last night by Capt. Norman Hall of Colfax, Ia., and Lieut. Edward W. Rickenbacher of Columbus, O., after a duel over the American line of the Toul sector.

The American birdmen first engaged the enemy machine over the American lines. Lieut. Rickenbacher, well known as an automobile racer in the United States, swept over the German and opened fire with his machine gun, while Capt. Hall, formerly a member of the Lafayette escadrille, darted behind the German and also opened fire. The German made desperate attempts to escape and returned the fire of the Americans, several bullets piercing Capt. Hall's airplane.

The Americans peppered the enemy machine with bullets and drove it down until it fell behind the German trenches. Capt. Hall and Lieut. Rickenbacher returned from the fight unscathed. This was the third enemy machine to be bagged by the Americans in three weeks, while several others have been reported brought down unofficially.

Capt. Hall served as a private in the British army at the outbreak of the war and later joined the French aerial forces. He is the author of "Kitchen's Mob."

Rickenbacher Formerly Was Chauffeur for Gen. Pershing.

NEW YORK, May 1 (By A. P.).—Lieut. "Eddie" Rickenbacher, victor in an air duel over the German lines in France, resigned as chauffeur for Gen. Pershing's automobile because he wanted more action, according to his friends here. He obtained a commission in the aviation service with the national colors from the time he left America.

Rickenbacher, hero of many thrilling automobile races in this country and holder of a number of motor records at the age of 30, said on the eve of America's entry into the war that he would once drive for the army.

He was one of the first to fulfill his own prediction. Shortly after Gen. Pershing reached Europe, Rickenbacher followed him and offered his services as chauffeur. The American commander knew his record and accepted him.

ALLIES IMPROVE LINE IN FLANDERS; CONSCRIPTION FOR IRELAND POSTPONED

HOME RULE BILL EXPECTED TO BE INTRODUCED SOON

London Papers Believe Service Delay Is Due to Wish to Test Strength of Measure First.

INDICATIONS THAT WASHINGTON ACTED

American View Said to Be That Self-Rule Should Be Given Before Draft Is Applied.

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—An order-in-council has been issued further postponing the operation of the national service act or conscription as respects Ireland beyond May 1, to which it had been postponed previously.

Some of the morning newspapers say the postponement is due to the Government's wish to introduce a home rule bill and to see what measure of success it gets before proceeding to enforce conscription in Ireland.

Opinion in the lobbies of Parliament is that a home rule bill will be presented in the House of Commons next week.

Irish Conscription Postponement Gives Relief in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (By A. P.).—Though fully expected, the announcement that the Washington postponement of the application of the conscription act to Ireland is received with great relief by officials here. Grave concern had been felt over the situation and there have been indications that the Washington administration has let Premier Lloyd George know that in its judgment the application of the Irish conscription act should follow and not precede the passage of the home rule act.

Interference in the internal affairs of another state under ordinary conditions might be bitterly resented, but the situation is somewhat different here. The United States and Great Britain as they stand associated in war against the Central Powers.

TURN IRISH QUESTION OVER TO U. S., BRITISH LAWYER SUGGESTS

LONDON, April 15 (Correspondence of A. P.).—Solve Ireland's trouble by turning the question over to the United States. This, the solemnly suggested, is offered in a letter to the press by Sir Edward Marshall Hall, former member of Parliament and one of the best known criminal lawyers in England.

"Successful British governments have failed signally to deal with the Irish question," the letter says, "and at the moment we are faced with grave national difficulties. Why not ask the United States to help us and offer to hand over the government of Ireland to them."

"By so doing," the letter affirms, "instead of creating a possible German menace within a few miles of our shores, we should bring our allies nearer to us by some thousands of miles, and under their beneficent rule Ireland would prosper as it has never done before and we should have bound America to us by bonds of mutual gratitude."

"And above all," Sir Edward concludes, "no one of the Irish leaders would be able to say that either one of the others has entirely won."

Members of the Labor Deputation who awaited upon the Premier in the House of Commons Monday in regard to Irish conscription, admit, says the Daily Telegraph, that Premier Lloyd George spoke frankly and firmly and listened patiently to the statement prepared by Arthur Henderson and J. H. Thomas.

The Premier promised that the Cabinet would consider fully the representations of the laborites, but he held out no hope so far as he was concerned personally for any change in the policy of the Government.

$2,000,000 TO AID WOUNDED

PARIS, May 1 (By A. P.).—The American Red Cross today presented ten million francs ($2,000,000) to the committee which is directing the three great French societies for caring for the wounded. They are the French Red Cross, Les Femmes de France and Les Dames Francaises.

Immigration From Europe Decreases

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Statistics made public today by the Bureau of Immigration show that only 468,000 immigrants were admitted to the United States last year, while 1,400,000 came in the previous year.

OUR ARMY IN FRANCE GROWING STEADILY; HIGH PRAISE FOR DRAFT UNITS

Cantonments Up Almost Over Night and Railroads Quickly Laid—Our Boys' Over There Are Calling One Another "Buddy."

BY JOSEPH W. GRIGG.

A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, April 30.—America's khaki tide now flows into France in a volume not heretofore approximated. The United States is literally dumping an army into France, to use the words of Premier Lloyd George recently used in the House of Commons. Today I had an opportunity to see and speak with many fine soldiers of our National Army, who in a comparatively few days have shaken the mud of their own country from their feet and have accumulated an abundance of its French counterpart.

Towns which until now had not been seen by American troops are now being seen by their American allies.

"I didn't know what to do when one old lady took my hand and kissed it," said a big doughboy. "Gee, these people can't do enough for us."

In one part of this little town I saw 15 children admiringly scrutinizing a smiling Buddy, which is the name men of the National Army seem to have adopted. Buddy is supposed to be a shorter term for brother. These Buddies have brought with them their own brand of camp terms.

Let me give you the serious words of a certain General of our army who just now is preparing to do the big job of molding an army in a sector behind the lines somewhere in France.

"This National Army of ours hasn't a peer anywhere," he said. "Our boys are coming to France as fast as they can be transported. And many are coming in German ships. They have only one desire and that is to get at the Germans and when they do the Germans will get the worst of it."

French Are Hospitable.

"Too much cannot be said about the hospitality of the French people and our boys are proving themselves worthy of the faith placed in them."

It is impossible for military reasons to state just how many days elapsed from the time certain telegrams were dispatched from Washington calling for the embarkation of certain units and the arrival of these units in a picturesque part of France. Men who saluted some of the officers in command of the units where the ocean climbs our coast line are now billeted in old French towns where few if any American tourists ever strayed or set the bad standard of large tips.

In the old world settings there the hardy products of American training camps are making ready to continue training before being ordered to the front line to share in the fighting which they are so anxious to do. Their white bread astonishes the natives, especially the children, for some of the small youngsters when offered white bread did not know what it was. They were too young when war bread was adopted in this country to know what bread looked like when white.

Weather conditions prevent aerial activity on either side.

AmERICANS ON FRENCH FRONT HAVE GAIN

WITH AN AMERICAN ARMY ON A FRENCH BATTLE FRONT, Tuesday, April 30 (By A. P.).—The situation along the American sector gradually is becoming static. There have been no infantry encounters in the last 48 hours, although small patrol parties or outposts have met in the darkness and mist.

Despite rain and poor visibility, the American and French artillery have been most active in shelling enemy back areas. A certain American battery has been having a heavy barrage on enemy batteries and positions around a certain village which has been virtually wiped out. The German artillery is less active than in the days immediately following the Americans' appearance on this sector. The Germans are throwing some gas shells.

Weather conditions prevent aerial activity on either side.

Land Battleship Will Be Shown in Streets of St. Louis for Three Days.

The tank "Brittania" which has been demonstrating land battleship warfare in this country, will be brought to St. Louis May 13 by the British-Canadian Recruiting Mission to stimulate interest in a national recruiting campaign for 20,000 British subjects from the United States.

Brittania will perform in the streets of St. Louis for three days. Brittania weighs only 45 tons, as her armament consists of only six machine guns. The huge tanks now being manufactured mount artillery and weigh up to 45 tons.

Although severely strafed by bullets, Brittania is as sprightly and efficient as on her maiden plunge over the top. She is under command of Capt. Haight and a gun crew.

French in Local Attack Rectify Their Line and British Rush Enemy Posts and Capture Prisoners—Artillery Fire Continues Brisk

FRENCH REPULSE ASSAULT AT NOYON

Germans Ejected After Penetrating Trenches—Further Reports Show Enemy Losses in Flanders Were Particularly Severe.

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—French troops last night improved their positions in the neighborhood of Locre, on the Flanders front, the War Office announces. The British rushed German posts in the Metestun sector and took prisoners.

The statement follows: "A local attack made by the enemy yesterday upon one of our posts in the neighborhood of St. Julian was repulsed by machine gun fire, and held by the enemy in the Metestun sector were repulsed by our troops during the night and a few prisoners were secured by us."

"By a successful minor enterprise carried out last night French troops improved the positions held by them in the neighborhood of Locre."

British Win Successes in Mesopotamia Campaign.

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—A British official communication dealing with the operations in Mesopotamia says:

"Our forces in several columns, the organization of which necessitated a long and careful preparation, have advanced to the north of Baghdad along the main road leading to Mosul by way of Kirkuk and Kifri."

"On the 27th of April Kirkuk was captured and 40 prisoners were taken. The Turks avoided attack and retreated to Kifri. Our cavalry overtook an enemy column and charged it, killing more than a hundred men and capturing 533 prisoners and much war material."

"On April 28 our cavalry forced a passage of the Aqueduct at a point southwest of Tuzhurmatli, and our main force reached the banks of the Aqueduct."

"Early on the 29th our cavalry got astride the Persia communications toward Taur and shortly afterwards our infantry advanced against Tuzhurmatli, which town was soon captured with 300 prisoners, five guns and some transport. The pursuit of the enemy continued along the main road to the north."

Lively Artillery Duels on Somme and on the Aisne.

PARIS, May 1 (By A. P.).—Artillery duels of some intensity occurred last night on the Somme front near Villers-Bretonneux and on both sides of the Aisne, southeast of Amiens, says today's War Office report.

Last Night's Reports From Battle Front

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—"Except for local fighting at different points, there has been no infantry action today," said Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters in France tonight. "In a successful counter attack last night at Locre the French troops captured 94 prisoners. Further reports confirm the fact that the enemy's losses were heavy in his unsuccessful attack yesterday."

"South of the Somme our patrols brought in a few prisoners. Beyond the usual artillery activity on both sides, there is nothing further to report."

BERLIN, via London, May 1.—The official statement from headquarters yesterday said:

"Infantry engagements developed on isolated sectors on the Flanders battlefield. North of Voormezele and Vierset we captured several English trenches. Strong detachments of the enemy were penetrating the enemy's lines near Locre, where in contact with French counter attacks. During the capture of the batteries the enemy succeeded in establishing himself in Locre. His attempt to advance beyond the village failed. "Strong artillery activity, which lasted throughout the day, extended over the whole Kemmel territory and continued until darkness fell."

PARIS, May 1.—The statement issued by the War Office last night reads: "The region of Hangeard was violently bombarded during the course of the day. In the Noyon sector a German attack resulted in a spirited engagement. Our troops drove the enemy from advanced elements where they had taken footing and re-established their line. Patrol encounters occurred on the left bank of the Oise."

PAUL B. MURPHY ACQUITTED BY JURY OF ARSON CHARGE

Expected That Indictment Against John Huebner on Same Evidence Will Be Dismissed.

A sealed verdict opened in Judge Davis' court this morning acquitted Paul B. Murphy of 2009 California avenue, president of the Murphy Investment Co., of a charge of arson in the third degree. It was expected that a pending charge against John Huebner, an employee of Murphy, who was indicted on the same evidence, would be dismissed.

The witnesses against Murphy were Mrs. Jean Weiler of 2616 Oregon avenue and Otto Gluck, proprietor of the Lockwood Hotel at 1814 Chestnut street, who asserted that they entered into a conspiracy with Murphy and Huebner to burn household effects at 3707 Delmar boulevard, on which Mrs. Weiler, then Miss Hildegarde Brer, had taken out a fire insurance policy for $2500. The fire occurred at 2 o'clock on the morning of March 30, 1917.

Mrs. Weiler testified that Murphy went to her home two or three days before the fire to see that the policy was in order. The defendant produced witnesses, hotel bills and checks to prove that from March 25 to 31 he was in Kansas City. He denied having ever seen Gluck or Mrs. Weiler until they brought the accusation against him.

FROST LAST NIGHT WITH SOME ICE IN THE COUNTY

Nurseryman Fears Strawberries in Bloom, Were Ruined; Other Plants Killed.

A very white frost, looking like a young snow, spread dismay this morning among the nurserymen who had neglected to cover up their plants last night. In St. Louis County there was a scum of ice here and there in low places.

Official temperature readings at the city Weather Bureau did not go below 43 degrees but county thermometers with good reputations for veracity recorded 32 degrees at daylight.

Frank A. Weber, a St. Louis County nurseryman, said the threat of frost had not so much to worry about as the orchard owners and strawberry growers. Strawberries in bloom, he said, are damaged or not ruined.

He has hopes that apples and cherries have not been damaged, and cabbages and lettuce, he believes will not show any ill effects. But as for the hopeful householders who set out tomato plants, and did not protect them well last night, he fears that they will have a lot to explain to their families.

Alexander Lurie, horticulturist at Shaw's Garden, said most kinds of garden truck probably had not suffered greatly. But those who have been so rash as to make a start on corn, beans and tomatoes in April, he said, may have their work to do over.

SHIP RIVETER DRIVES 2805 RIVETS IN 9-HOUR STRETCH

Gang of Three at Fore River Yard Claim to Have Broken World's Record.

QUINCY, Mass., May 1 (By A. P.).—A riveting gang of three Syrians at the Fore River yard of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation today claimed to have broken the world's record for riveting. This was based on the performance of Riveter Charles Mulham, who drove 2805 three-quarter inch oil-tight rivets in a nine-hour stretch last night.

The calloused hands of both the riveter and his holder-on were badly burned because of the heat from the tools.

The gang earned something like $70 as a result of the night's work and a substantial bonus in recognition of the feat.

BALLOON WILL SCATTER WAR LOAN APPEALS OVER ST. LOUIS

Sphere Part of Equipment Brought Back From San Antonio by Missouri Aeronautical Society.

The Missouri Aeronautical Society, which has brought its equipment back from San Antonio, Tex., where spherical balloon training for army aviators has been in progress during the past winter, will send a balloon up today to scatter Liberty Loan literature over the city. It will be in charge of Pilot J. P. McKibben and E. F. Cole, aid.

Spherical balloon training has been temporarily suspended. When it is resumed it will be at the Grand avenue and Lamar street grounds.

W. J. Maresh, treasurer, and W. H. Bryson, recorder, have returned from Texas. Maj. A. B. Lambert is still at San Antonio.

PARIS BOMBARDMENT RENEWED

Long Range Shelling Begun Again This Morning.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOW THAT ZEEBRUGGE RAID WAS A SUCCESS, SAYS REPINGTON

St. George's Day Exploit Will Be Remembered as Glorious Feat of Arms for British Navy, Says Critic.

By LIEUT.-COL. REPINGTON, Former Military Critic of the London Times.

(Copyright, 1918.) LONDON, May 1.—Certainly the George's day exploit of our navy on St. George's day was a complete success. Photography does not lie in such matters, and our latest photographs show that the Intrepid and the Iphigenia reached the precise positions in the Zeebrugge channel that they were directed to, and that the latter, in particular, lies with her bow and stern firmly wedged upon the shallows which uncover at low tide on the eastern side of the channel, and that she could not possibly be better placed to obstruct navigation.

The Intrepid also lies almost athwart the channel, higher up, and much impeding the entrance and exit, while even the Thais lies directly in a position where she may do the most port injury. The effective action of the submarine whose target was the shore end of the mole is also testified photographically by a wide gap of 100 feet in that structure.

Of course, all these obstructions to the channel can be removed in time, but there is not a shadow of doubt that the enemy's flotillas at Bruges are, for the time, unable to use Zeebrugge as an outlet to the sea.

The Belgian coast line, now in German occupation, is protected by an almost uninterrupted line of batteries with many hundred guns, among which, in the region of Zeebrugge and Ostend alone, are 120 heavy guns ranging from 6 to 15 inches. The whole coast also is covered with barbed wire and strongly held; the sea area in front is mined and guarded by nets and patrols; star shells and searchlights enable it to be brilliantly illuminated by night.

No Foolhardy Venture. For practical purposes this coast is almost unapproachable by a fleet of armored ships and the enemy may well have regarded his defense as impregnable. But it was no foolhardy venture on which our navy embarked, and when all the facts can be recounted there is no doubt that the admirable staff work which preceded the action will be accorded high merit by some fishermen have been arrested, it seems, for aiding in the attack. They had less to do with it than the man in the moon. It is not on such aids that our navy counts in conducting such serious operations. One monitor and our siege guns in Flanders had often bombarded Zeebrugge before, and when they opened on this night an attack of the usual character was doubtless expected. But then there was the initiation of a sea fog yet invented and under cover of this artificial screen the ships approached.

The Vindictive, suddenly looming up through the mist and making fast where it has been received sympathetically.

This is not the first report emanating from Germany recently that the Pope is about to make another peace move. The Neue Presse, Schichten of Munich, Bavaria, according to a London dispatch of April 23, said that the Pope would make a peace offer as soon as the western offensive had assumed a new phase. The Bavarian newspaper, however, the move would take the form of a "word of warning addressed to the universal conscience."

A dispatch from Stockholm Tuesday reported that a message from the Austrian emperor to the emperor of Austria was to make a new peace offer appealing to Italy to consider it in her own interests.

That a "peace offensive" would be made by the Central Powers in the event that the German offensive on the west appeared abortive had been predicted frequently in allied capitals. This may be the beginning.

Pope Benedict intends to issue a new peace offer on Whit Sunday, May 19. Cologne newspapers announce. The document, it is said, will be of more pressing nature than formerly and will contain concrete offers of mediation by the Pope with the possible co-operation of neutral sovereigns.

Information of the Pope's intention, it is said, has reached Berlin.

MOTHER GAVE THIS DELICATE CHILD VINOL

And He Got Well and Strong. That's True

"My little boy, who is the youngest of three, was weak, nervous and tired all the time, so he was most unfit at school, and nothing seemed to help him. I learned of Vinol and gave it to him. It has restored his health and strength and he has gained in weight."

to the mole as she dropped gangways from her high false deck, was the first indication to the enemy of what was in the wind. The sea and the mole at Zeebrugge are usually at cross purposes, and the Vindictive could not easily remain fast, owing to the backwash. But the little Daffodil was used to keep her in place and therefore could not carry out her mission to land parties further along the mole. Half of the channel, the Vindictive were with her, while the little Iris, her consort, found her grapple too small to span the parapet of the mole and suffered heavy losses by the enemy's fire.

Scaling Ladders Shot Away. But the landing parties of the Vindictive, though their gallant officers fell, managed to get ashore and drop down 10 feet from the top of the mole to its interior surface. Her scaling ladders shot away by the Germans on a destroyer lying alongside the mole, while a heavy machine-gun fire from the shore caused many casualties. The German destroyer was probably sunk by the submarine launch, which claims her, and the German garrison, including half of the battery at the tip of the mole, appears to have retreated to land.

The blocking ships then went in and carried out their mission, while the Admiral in command of the expedition, with his three destroyers, watched over the Vindictive, ready to oppose any hostile ship that came out.

The blowing up of the shore end of the mole by an old British submarine packed with explosives was one of the most impressive incidents of the battle. The young commander rammed his little ship well home in among the piles, fired her, and then had five minutes to get clear with his three companions. But the motor of his launch broke down, and the party had to row clear. The submarine blew up, and with her all the Germans on the mole above her, while the little boat in which the British crew of the submarine escaped was nearly swamped by the force of the explosion. The ship rendered by the motor launches both at Zeebrugge and Ostend cannot be overestimated.

Courage and Devotion. When all was accomplished, the Admiral in command gave the word, and the commander of the Vindictive cast off after an hour and five minutes under a crossfire of which the Vindictive still bears the glorious scars. The grand night's work of the Vindictive and her companions, and the plan could not have succeeded had not each man played the part allotted him with courage and devotion.

There is almost nothing in war that is so heroic as the work of the Vindictive and her companions, and the plan could not have succeeded had not each man played the part allotted him with courage and devotion.

BAKER TO OUTLINE PLAN TO INCREASE ARMY TOMORROW

Expected to Ask House Committee for Authority to Raise as Many Troops as Could Be Equipped.

SHIPPING PROBLEM GONE OVER AGAIN

Hurley Asked for Estimates of Maximum Facilities That Could Be Obtained at War Council Meeting.

WASHINGTON, May 1 (By A. P.).—Secretary Baker will appear before the House Military Committee tomorrow morning to present the administration program for increasing the army to meet the German drive. The exact form of his recommendation is not known, but there are indications that he will not confine himself to specific figures, asking for blanket authority to raise all the troops it is found possible to clothe, equip and ship to France.

The whole question of equipment and transportation was gone over again at the War Department today by the War Council. Chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board, Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board and Chairman A. S. Franklin of the Control Board were present, besides Assistant Secretary Stettinius and Major-General Goethals, directly charged with the supplying and transportation of the army.

It is known that War Department officials, through the survey of shipping and supplies recently completed, have been convinced that it will be possible to handle at least 3,000,000 men this year, and that that number could be considerably increased by straining resources. It is therefore believed that Baker will indicate to the House Committee tomorrow that an additional million men will be mobilized if authority is granted.

Fighting Units Wanted. The bulk of the additional forces would be organized as fighting units, it is assumed, as the forces already assembled have provided the major part of the noncombatant troops necessary for a largely increased army.

There is nothing to indicate that the War Department sees at this time any necessity for extending the draft beyond the present limit of 18 years. It is believed that there are enough men in Class 1 of the draft rated as fighting material to fill any demand that possibly can be made upon the selective service men for a year or more.

In addition, extension of the draft to men who have reached the minimum age of 21 since the act was passed, will add another three-quarters of a million to the list of available men.

None of the officials present at today's meetings would say what figures had been discussed. It is known, however, that Chairman Hurley was asked for estimates of the maximum shipping that could be obtained from all sources to accelerate troop movements.

Plan to Expand Camps. In connection with the increase of the army, the War Department is inclined to expand existing cantonments and the use of National Guard camps to accommodate additional troops, rather than the construction of new cantonments. For the present Camp Gordon (Ga.) is being used.

The lemon lotion has incalculable in once or twice each day means a little time and trouble, girls, but what of the splendid results? A skin bleached beautifully white, a complexion with the bloom of a peach, a softening of "those lines of care" in fact, a skin eloquent of nature's purity and hands white, soft and full of charm.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the best of that National Juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of the best skin and complexion lotion about the cost of one usually paid for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it really does clear, smoothen and beautify the skin amazingly.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.—ADV.

Two More St. Louis Marines Are Wounded

Harry H. Wilson, a St. Louis Marine, photographed in a scenic spot on which was the inscription, "Going After U-Boats." He has been wounded in action in France.

THE wounding of two more St. Louis Marines, serving with the Marine Corps in France, brings the April casualty list of St. Louis Marines to a total of 11, of whom one was killed.

Mrs. Isaac L. Barton, 6228 Marmaduke avenue, was notified that her brother, Charles S. Olmstead, 21 years old, had been wounded April 13. He enlisted last May.

Mrs. May Loder, 4401 North Second street, was notified that her son, Harry H. Wilson, 22 years old, had been wounded April 13.

Another Missouri boy, Walter W. Pierce, 23 years old, son of L. M. Pierce of Newtonia, agent for the Yarrow Pine Line Co., stationed temporarily at Clayton, was also wounded. He enlisted last June, and told in a letter dated March 25 that he expected to be sent to the front. Previous to his enlistment he was a senior divinity student at Park College, Parkville, Mo.

used as an infantry replacement division. Later on Camp Lee (Va.) will be devoted to this purpose and there will be several replacement divisions eventually.

Camp Jackson (S. C.) is now rated as a field artillery replacement post, and men selected for service with the guns go there for training. Camp Hancock (Ga.) is the machine gun replacement post, and Camp Huachuca (Ariz.) the engineer replacement center. Camp Meade (Md.) eventually will be used for signal corps and liaison replacement work.

Provost Marshal-General Crowder will accompany Baker before the committee and the two will discuss the draft quota to the basis of the number of men in Class 1.

"American military forces in Europe constantly are on the increase," Secretary Baker today told a conference of ship owners and leaders of seamen's unions. The increase in cargo and troop ships enables us to augment our army and navy steadily. Baker said a vital necessity of continuing the American military effort lay in the provision of adequate cargo space. He commended the purpose of the conference which is to augment our army and navy steadily. All that can be said about these rumors, the Times adds, is that they are not inherently incredible.

Proposes Cards for Workers. In an effort to rid East St. Louis of vagrants the Police Board proposes to install a card system, by which all persons regularly employed or engaged in business may be identified. The Police Department will distribute blank identification cards to all firms and business houses, which will be made out for each employee or member of the firm.

The police then will arrest all suspicious characters who are not able to show one of these cards, and prosecute them on vagrancy charges.

Glass of Water Before You Eat Your Breakfast. Wash poison from system each morning, and feel fresh as a daisy.

Every day you clean the house you try to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up each day with dirt and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "brain fags," "head aches" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water sweetened with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colic, and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside. Because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—ADV.

REFORM BILL DEBATE STIRS PRUSSIAN HOUSE

Motion to Defer Action Until After War Brings Threat to Call Upon Soldiers to Quit Fighting.

AMSTERDAM, May 1 (By A. P.).—In the discussion of the Prussian reform bill in the Prussian lower house Tuesday, Herr von Heydebrand, Conservative, declared that if equal suffrage, as the Government proposed, was introduced, the character of the lower house would be changed and it would not be possible to long maintain the Prussian State as it is.

The unrest among the people ought not to last much longer, and an agreement was quite possible, said Herr Friedberg, vice president of the Prussian Ministry. Herr Porch, a Centrist, said that a small section of the Centrist party would vote against the bill, but the majority would support it.

Postponement Is Proposed. The lower house has had a discussion on the motion of the Centrist member, Count Spee, in favor of adjourning the electoral reform bill until after peace has been declared, on the ground that the soldiers ought to return home before any electoral reform took place.

Herr Friedberg, vice president of the House, said that such an unlimited postponement would be a great danger to the country's internal peace.

Count Spee's motion met with strong opposition from the progressive sections of the House. Adolph Hoffmann, Independent Socialist, said that if the motion was adopted he would appeal to the soldiers to stop fighting—a statement which led to shouts of "Shame! Withdraw! Traitor!"

A very acrimonious debate ensued, and finally it was resolved by the votes of the Rightists to adjourn the sitting for an hour. On the resumption of the sitting Count Spee's motion was rejected, 333 to 60.

"Equal Suffrage Fundamental." Count von Hertling, the Imperial Chancellor, in the subsequent debate, said: "The proceedings might evoke doubt whether we shall reach an understanding, but they also show strong feeling of responsibility is on all sides. This affords me the hope that we will find a common road for the reconciling of divergent opinions."

Proceeding to analyze the bill and the various motions before the House, Count von Hertling remarked: "Plutocratic suffrage which gauges political rights according to wealth is today no longer possible in our nation. The Government, therefore, cannot countenance plutocratic suffrage. Equal suffrage must be fundamental in all elections. The promise given must be redeemed. In all modern states political and social life is being directed toward this goal. In many states equal suffrage already has gone far beyond what this bill proposes, and in the long run it is impossible for Prussia to escape this warning."

"It is, of course, possible to arrange certain safeguards to remove too far-reaching radical consequences. The bill already contains such safeguards and others may be added."

BRIDGE OVER THE RHINE NAMED FOR CROWN PRINCE Kaiser Similarly Honors Gen. von Hindenburg and Ludendorff, Berlin Announces.

BERLIN, via London, May 1 (By A. P.).—At the direction of Emperor William today, three new Rhine bridges have been named for the German Crown Prince, Field Marshal von Hindenburg and Gen. Ludendorff. In a message to the Crown Prince, Emperor William said: "It is a great pleasure for me to tell you I today ordered that the Rhine railway bridge near Engers, which was built in great times, and is to render important services in the country's defense, shall be called the 'Crown Prince Wilhelm Bridge.' The administration of Prussian State Railways which made the proposal to me, desires in this way gratefully to perpetuate your name as an army leader."

The Emperor similarly honored von Hindenburg by having a bridge near Rudesheim called the "Field Marshal Gen. von Hindenburg Bridge." The bridge near Remagen has been named "Quartmaster-General of Infantry Ludendorff Bridge."

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild, sure, safe, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. "Most headaches, 'dullness' and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel 'lousy' and 'heavy.' Note how they 'clear' clouded brain and how they 'perk up' the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.—ADV.

BELLEVILLE WOMAN WAS CAPTURED BY GERMANS

Mrs. Oscar Sachs Was Released
Same Day by French During Invasion of Belgium.

Taken by the Germans in the morning and rescued by the French in the evening was the experience of Mrs. Clothilde Sachs, wife of Oscar Sachs of Belleville, who lived in Charleroi, Belgium, in August, 1914, when the Germans invaded the country. Sachs, two months previously, had left for Canada to work in the mines, telling his wife he would send for her.

Mrs. Sachs was alone with her 18-month-old baby when the Germans entered the town and set fire to many houses, among them her own. She, with her child and eight other women, attempted to escape, but were captured by German soldiers. Fifteen soldiers marched the women to Dapremont, 15 miles away.

"The Germans used coarse language toward us, but they offered us no violence," Mrs. Sachs said today to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "The soldiers kept us walking faster and faster and one of the soldiers, who thought I was not walking fast enough, poked a bayonet at me. I thought he was trying to kill my baby and placed my hands over the child's head and was severely cut on the hand by the bayonet."

"At Dapremont French soldiers appeared and finally rescued us and later took us back to Charleroi. I packed what belongings I had and with others trapped to Soissons, France. Some of the older women died. I carried my baby the entire distance. At Charleroi, on our return from Dapremont, I saw many persons I knew lying dead in the streets. On reaching Soissons I took my baby to St. Brice where I entered the Red Cross Hospital as a nurse. I worked there for nine months and then went to England, from where I sailed for America and met my husband."

The family has been living in Belleville 18 months. Mrs. Sachs was an honor guest at a recent Liberty Loan meeting at Belleville.

REPORT LIEDERKRANZ CLUB WOULD CHANGE NAME DENIED

Question Not Taken Up at Meeting; Members Have Bought $525,000 Worth of Liberty Bonds.

The Liederkranz Club last night reported that members had subscribed for $525,000 in Liberty Bonds, an average of $1000 for each active member. It also was reported that 101 members of the club are in the military service of the United States.

A report that the club at last night's meeting was to consider a proposition to call itself the American Club instead of the Liederkranz was denied by officers, who declared that the question had not been under consideration.

Emil N. Tolkaez, a former president, said the club had been in existence 60 years under the name of Liederkranz, which means "a wreath of song," and that he could see no reason for dropping the old name. "It would be just as good reason for me to change my name, although it is Polish," he said. "I have not one drop of German blood in me, but by accident I was born in Berlin."

Another question which the club had been expected to take up, and which was not discussed, was that of prohibiting the singing of German songs in the club during the war. Some time ago it was reported that several old members who were playing pentacle in the club were displeased because a group of young members stood around and shouted a song into their ears about "To hell with the Kaiser." The pentacle players protested to the chairman of the House Committee, who, it was stated, decided that the young men could go as far as they liked in denouncing the Kaiser, and further stated that he proposed to introduce a resolution to stop the singing of German songs.

FIRST OF 13,000 DRAFTED MEN DUE AT BARRACKS TOMORROW

Contingent Will Come From Illinois; St. Louis to Send 551 Men to Post Beginning May 12.

The first of 13,000 drafted men who will be mobilized at Jefferson Barracks before May 20 will arrive there tomorrow afternoon. They will come from Illinois. There will be daily arrivals in such number as can be cared for without overtaxing the capacity of the post.

The men will be given physical examination and will be distributed to various training contingents. They will not receive any military training at the barracks.

Missouri's drafted men will be sent to Jefferson barracks, beginning May 10. St. Louis will send 551, most of whom will go to the Barracks May 12. They will be the first St. Louis drafted men to receive their introduction to army life so near home.

To be certain of having ample housing accommodations for the drafted men, Col. George K. Hunter, commandant at the post, has provided 300 tents, each large enough for six men. The post has two large mess halls which Col. Hunter says are ample for feeding all the men who will be there at any one time.

PLANS FOR PAVING DELMAR AV.

Work Between Rosedale and De Giverville to Begin in Three Weeks.

The work of paving Delmar boulevard, between Rosedale and De Giverville avenues, will be begun by the city within three weeks, Street Director Talbert said today. The United Railways Co. has begun paving the space between the tracks with brick. The city will use asphalt for six feet on either side of the tracks, thus making the pavement the same width as the bridge over River des Peres. Sidewalks will not be built, except at Delmar Station, as the improvement is a temporary one, to tide over until the plans for raising the Wabash tracks are carried out.

48-Horsepower
127-Inch Wheelbase

This $1250 Six Is This Year's Supreme Value

IT IS not a small car. The wheelbase is 120 inches—the motor is 40 horsepower.

It is not a stunted car, but a car which shows you extra values—unique values—in every part and detail.

It has the Mitchell strength and endurance. It has oversize parts, big margins of safety.

It has the costly steels, the wealth of drop forgings for which Mitchell cars are famous.

It has a power tire pump, a dashboard engine primer, reversible headlights, shock-absorbing springs. Also many other features which most fine cars omit.

It has finish and luxury far exceeding any other car in this class.

How It Is Done

The more you know of present-day cars the more you will wonder how we sell such a car at this price.

The reason lies in factory efficiency. The Mitchell is built in a mammoth, model plant.

The entire factory was built and equipped under famous efficiency experts. Years have been spent to eliminate every waste.

Mitchell builds the whole car—chassis and body—under these ideal methods. And the savings are enormous.

Those savings pay for this extra strength, these unusual standards, this unique equipment and this matchless luxury.

Every New-Type Body

The new Mitchell line embraces 19 new-style bodies—the largest line that is built. So it exhibits every attraction known to 1918 cars.

Come and see how many rare attractions this new Mitchell line includes.

JUVENILE SPEAKER FOR LIBERTY BONDS

Billie Blanch Schacht.

$800,000 IN BONDS SOLD
WHERE GIRL, 5, HAS SPOKEN

Billie Blanch Schacht, 5 Years Old, Making From 10 to 15 Talks a Day.

One of the most successful juvenile speakers for Liberty Bonds is Billie Blanch Schacht, 5 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Schacht, 1119A Hamilton avenue. She makes from 10 to 15 speeches daily for the bonds. At places where she has appeared about $800,000 in bonds have been sold by salesmen. Billie is a bright, attractive child, and few who have heard her have resisted the impressive appeal of her charming manner. She makes her talk before a large or small audience equally well without visible tremor, and enunciates each word with studied care and emphasis. She is a four-minute speaker, delivering a studied speech interspersed with rhymes. One of her popular talks concludes with this appeal:

"The boys who fight, have every right. To look to us to pay. They bear the brunt, so do your stunt—Buy Liberty Bonds today."

Miss Naomi Blaven, 17, of 4019 Connecticut street, was cut and bruised when knocked down by an automobile as she alighted from a street car at Russell place and Arsenal street in the evening. Ray Doss, 29, of 709 Pine street, the driver, was arrested.

DOUBLES LOAN SUBSCRIPTION

Associate Justice Clark of Supreme Court Says Conditions Demand It.
WASHINGTON, May 1 (By A. P.)—Associate Justice Clark of the Supreme Court has subscribed to an additional $10,000 of Liberty bonds. His letter ordering the subscription was read at a local theater last night and a suggestion that it be matched with subscriptions for $20,000 was met promptly by persons in the audience.

"In Ohio, where I have business interests," the Justice wrote: "I subscribed to the third Liberty loan to what I thought was the limit of my ability, but the change in conditions in Europe since I subscribed, and a desire to do something in aid of the subscriptions in Washington, led me to write you and ask that you place an additional subscription for me here of $10,000."

FRECKLES

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double-strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. — ADVERTISEMENT.

The Japanese Way to Remove Corns Doesn't Hurt a Bit—Easy and Simple

The Magic Touch of Ice-Mint Does It. Just a Touch Stops Soreness, Then the Corn or Callous Shrivels and Lifts Off. Try It. Your Feet Will Feel Cool and Fine.

Just a touch of Ice-Mint and "Oh!" what relief. Corns and calluses vanish, soreness disappears and you can dance all night or walk all day and your corns won't hurt a bit. No matter what you have tried or how many times you have been disappointed, here is a real help for you at last. From the very second that Ice-Mint touches that sore, tender corn your poor, tired, aching feet will feel so cool, easy and comfortable that you will just sigh with relief. Think of it! Just a little touch of that delightful, cooling Ice-Mint and real foot joy is yours. No matter how old or tough your corn is he will shrivel right up and you can pick him out after a touch of Ice-Mint. No pain! Not a bit of soreness, either when applying it or afterwards, and it doesn't even irritate the skin. Ice-Mint is the real Japanese secret of fine, healthy little feet. Prevents foot odors and keeps them cool, sweet and comfortable. It is now selling like wildfire here. Just ask in any drug store for a little Ice-Mint and give your poor, suffering, tired feet the treat of their lives. There is nothing better, nor nothing "just as good." — ADVERTISEMENT.

U. S. LABOR DELEGATES TO ENGLAND SEE ROYAL ARSENAL

Several of Contingent Shown Through Woolworth Institution—Speeches Cheered.

LONDON, May 1 (By A. P.).—Several members of the American labor delegation now visiting England made a comprehensive survey of the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich yesterday. They were taken over the arsenal and privileged to see many important developments in the production of munitions. The delegates were received enthusiastically in every shop and department.

Miss Higgins of the delegation spoke at a large canteen crowded with girls. She expressed the sentiment that the women of the United States were emphasizing their will to war. The girls shouted: "Good old glory." Prof. A. O. Lovejoy of Johns Hopkins University addressed a large number of men. He explained the American viewpoint and declared America's determination to go on until victory is obtained. He assured his hearers, who cheered loudly, that America was going to do and is doing big things. Prof. Lovejoy said he did not wish to boast, but wanted to emphasize that they could rely on material help from America within the next month or two.

The American party showed keen interest in certain American inventions being worked out at the arsenal, while the testing of the artillery pieces impressed them greatly. Prof. Lovejoy told newspaper men that the visit to Woolwich was one of the most important in the itinerary of the mission. The arsenal, he added, was a typical example of Great Britain's might and his countrymen would be greatly interested to hear of that hive of industry.

German Paper Suspends. LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 1 (By A. P.).—"Germans," a German language newspaper established here in 1874, failed to issue today. Editorial announcement yesterday said suspension was for the duration of the war and assigned a desire to avoid racial friction as the reason.

Red Blood—The Fountain of Vital Force

The higher you go up the ladder of life, the greater is your need of red blood and the vital force that springs from it. If your blood has become thin and poor, try a course of Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Think what it means to have vital force. Vital force is the spirit in man which clears the wilderness of life and carves footholds in what weaker men call the impassable barriers to success. Our wonderful, complex civilization has been built by man's vital force. And vital force is indispensable to the success and happiness of every man, woman, and child.

Vital force has its origin in the blood—the stream of life. The red blood cells carry and distribute oxygen—the breath of life—to every cell and tissue of the body. However, when the blood becomes impoverished, the red blood cells diminish in number and capacity to do work. Then there is lacking the vital force which enables red-blooded men and women to carry the world on their shoulders.

If you are deficient in vital force, let Gude's Pepto-Mangan and Nature's great curative agents, diet, air, sleep, and exercise, build up the red blood cells to normal number and oxygen-carrying capacity.

Study this picture so you will know how genuine Pepto-Mangan looks.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is not a temporary tonic, but a scientifically prepared blood builder which supplies the red blood cells with the elements they need. It has been used and prescribed by the medical profession for over 25 years because it is absolutely safe and beneficial for invalids, convalescents, and run-down people of all ages and conditions. It is a splendid general tonic and appetizer, exceedingly pleasant to taste, easy to digest, and promptly assimilated by the blood.

FRIENDLY WARNING: There are many imitations of Pepto-Mangan on the market, but you can be sure of the genuine if it bears the name "Gude's" and put up in the bottle and sealed package as pictured here. Ask for it by its full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." For sale at all drug stores.

Pepto-Mangan is made only by M. J. BREITENBACH CO., Manufacturing Chemists, New York

LEIPZIG COURT DECIDES GERMAN CANNOT BECOME U. S. CITIZEN

Opinion Dated 6 Months Before He Entered War Covered Case of Man Naturalized Here in 1905.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 1 (By A. P.).—A decree of the Royal District Court of Leipzig, handed down six months before the United States entered the war, has just been received here in the case of Ernest Gustav Hoffman of New Rochelle, who died in 1908 leaving an estate of about $300,000.

In this decision, handed down after Hoffman's widow had gone to Germany and married again, the German court refused to recognize the American citizenship of Hoffman, who was naturalized in 1905 after living 24 years in this country, and asserted that no German can become a citizen of the United States under any circumstances.

When Hoffman's will was filed, his widow and Alfred W. Kittle, a New York lawyer, were appointed by the court here as executors, but the German decree, upon petition of Mrs. Hoffman, set aside the appointment of Kittle, adding:

"It is the opinion of the court that the business intercourse with the United States is rendered so difficult with war conditions and the repeated British violations of the international law at sea, that a common cooperation between the local and the American executor is made exceptionally difficult and almost impossible."

"Moreover, the severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States is always to be feared in consequence of the stand taken by the latter country regarding the submarine war, which is felt in Germany to be partition to England and scarcely neutral."

CHICAGO HERALD TO BE MERGED WITH EXAMINER

James Keeley, Editor of Herald, Will Go to Europe to Engage in War Work.

CHICAGO, May 1 (By A. P.).—The Chicago Herald has been sold to the Illinois Printing and Publishing Co. and will be consolidated with the Examiner. The transfer is to take place tonight. The name of the paper will be the Herald and Examiner and Arthur Brisbane is to be editor. The Illinois Printing and Publishing Co. has published the Chicago Examiner, one of William H. Hearst's papers, for a number of years.

James Keeley, editor of the Herald, has been invited abroad by two European Governments for war work to make certain investigations and report to the American people, the announcement of the merger says.

It adds: "He will serve the Herald and Examiner in an advisory capacity and it is hoped and expected that upon his return to this country Mr. Keeley will resume his work as editor."

Keeley purchased the Record-Herald and the Inter Ocean four years ago, after serving as editor of the Tribune for a number of years, and named the combined papers the Herald.

Body Building Tonic Holds Vast Store of Food Value

Scientists Prove Father John's Medicine Is Five Times More Nourishing Than Many Common Foods We Eat.

That Father John's Medicine contains a vast store of food value and strength-building, energy-producing elements is established by recent scientific tests. This rich nourishment is in form which is more easily taken up by the system than the common foods we eat and has many times greater food value.

When a scientist states the food value of any product, he does so in terms of "calories" which he defines as the amount of heat used to raise the temperature of one gram of water one degree. A teaspoonful of Father John's Medicine contains 25,715.76 calories. The same quantity of steak contains only 10,714 calories. By these tests also it was proven that Father John's Medicine is five times more nourishing than equal quantity of cod fish, seven and one-half times more nourishing than an equal quantity of oysters and almost six times more nourishing than pure milk.

Because it supplies this nourishment which you do not obtain from your food and supplies it in the form which the system most easily takes up and turns into tissue, muscle, flesh and strength, Father John's Medicine has had more than sixty years of success as a food tonic for those who are weak and run down.

It is guaranteed that Father John's Medicine positively does not contain any alcohol or any dangerous, habit-forming drugs or opiates. It is a pure and wholesome, nourishing tonic food—a doctor's prescription, not a patent medicine. Begin taking it today.—ADVERTISEMENT.

Men with war grit

They're saving for the fighters

THOSE of you who are old enough to wear long trousers have "sand" enough to want to do your bit. Anything that gives a lift to the fellows under arms is just as distinctly a service to the country as fighting itself.

You can lend a hand when you buy clothes. If you get the all-wool kind that wear well and last long, you save wool and labor; that's a help to our soldiers.

For the sake of economy—the country's and your own—insist on all-wool clothes.

City Items in Brief

The Unity Dramatic Club will present "An American Citizen," a comedy in four acts, at the Church of the Unity, Waterman avenue and King's highway, Saturday night at 8:15 o'clock.

A solemn requiem mass in commemoration of the death a year ago of the Rev. A. V. Garthoffner, who for 10 years had been superintendent of Catholic schools in the city, will be celebrated at 10 a. m. tomorrow at the new Cathedral.

James Veroulus, 33 years old, of 2137 Eugenia street, arrested yesterday afternoon for alleged disloyal utterances in the presence of employees of the International Shoe Co.'s factory at Mississippi avenue and Hickory street, showed the police a Third Liberty Loan bond which he had purchased and denied that he said that American soldiers were "no good."

Maurice J. Gordon of 2850 St. Louis avenue has obtained judgment for possession of an automobile which was taken from him by the police April 9 when it was identified as one that had been stolen. Gordon produced a bill of sale in Justice Grassmuck's court.

Fire of supposed incendiary origin damaged a vacant one-story frame building at 5257 Botanical avenue about $200 last night.

James Clark, a landscape gardener, of 6149 Gambleton place, and Miss A. L. Dowler of the Blackmore Egg Farm, 5924 Natural Bridge avenue, were injured in a vehicle collision at Belt and Cabanne avenues last evening, when Clark's horse, frightened by an auto, ran away.

Two men with drawn revolvers entered the drug store of Mrs. Carmelite Sterretts, 798 Bayard avenue, last night, when the manager, John B. Hicks, was romping with Mrs. Sterretts' 4-year-old son and ordered them to throw up their hands. Hicks obeyed, but the child continued to romp and ran after one of the robbers as the latter was taking $37 from the cash drawer. The robbers escaped in an automobile.

Thomas Mahon, 72 years old, of 913 North Sixth street, was taken to the city hospital for observation last night, after he had told Max Guenther, a private watchman, of 6294 North Broadway, that he believed the Kaiser could whip the United States.

Two women representing themselves as solicitors for the Sacred Heart Society, and appealing for funds for the benefit of a convent at Nebraska avenue and Meramec street, are being sought by the police. The Rev. John S. Long of St. August Church, 1233 Sidney street, several of whose parishioners have been approached by the women, said they were impostors.

Nine automobiles were reported stolen yesterday afternoon and evening. Four were recovered. The others belonged to Mrs. Claude B. Martin, Normandy; J. J. Kelly, 5216 Waterman avenue; Joseph Parks, 380 North Bayle avenue; Dr. A. Rothchild, 6054 Westminster place, and M. Rosenfeld, 1 Biddle street.

Two women reported thefts at the Exhibit Building (old Southern Hotel), yesterday afternoon. Miss Margaret McDonald of 3511 Humphrey street lost a watch and bracelet valued at $50. Mrs. L. K. Hahn, 6008 Kingsbury place, lost a purse containing $2, check for $45.64, a lavalliere and $5 worth of thrift stamps.

A man posing as a prospective lodger ransacked two rooming houses yesterday afternoon. He took clothing valued at $75 from the rooming house of Mrs. Mary Bell, 4153 Von Versen avenue, and $5.17 in cash from the rooming house of Mrs. Norman Jukan, 3834 Delmar boulevard.

Sidney C. Johnson, 56 years old, 5118 Waterman avenue, general auditor of the St. Louis & Southwestern (Cotton Belt) Railway, died from ulcers of the stomach at St. Luke's Hospital yesterday. He had been ill for three months. He began as an office boy with the Iron Mountain railway in 1873. He has held the position of auditor of the Cotton Belt since 1891. He is survived by his widow and one son, Thomas C. Johnson.

Liberty Loan Notes

Among yesterday's subscriptions were those of John T. Milliken for $100,000; Joseph T. Ryerson & Sons' Foundry Co. and employees, $55,300; Westlake Construction Co., $10,000; Smith & Davis Manufacturing Co., $10,000; and Clarence Kirby, its president, $6000; Westinghouse Manufacturing Co., $25,000.

St. Louis Boy Scouts, numbering about 4000, yesterday sold $13,514 worth of bonds, bringing their total up to $1,141,500.

Subscriptions aggregating $4450 were obtained at the demonstration in front of the Post-Dispatch Building, on Twelfth street, at noon yesterday. Members of the Great Lakes Band and of the "Over the Top" Company now playing at the Jefferson Theater, participated in the affair.

About 3000 persons attended a patriotic demonstration conducted by five companies of St. Louis County Home Guards in Clayton last night. A parade, headed by a detachment of the Great Lakes Band and the Naval Drum and Bugle Corps, marched to the Clayton High School, where a mass meeting was held.

The Boy Scouts of Alton have obtained Third Liberty Loan subscriptions totaling $13,050.

The Fulton Iron Works turned in a $50,000 subscription for the firm, $35,550 for 594 employees and $14,000 for the officers of the company yesterday.

The 34 bond and insurance salesmen teams report $0,859 subscriptions totaling $20,454,800.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it, entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—ADV.

How German Raider Captured the Japanese Steamer Hitachi Maru

Captain Surrendered After Lively Exchange of Shots—70 Passengers and 100 of Crew Taken on the Wolf.

THE Post-Dispatch herewith presents the fourth installment of Capt. Cameron's fascinating story of his five months as a prisoner on the German raider Wolf while she searched the high seas for undefended allied merchant ships to destroy. Capt. Cameron's own ship, the Beluga, loaded with gasoline, San Francisco to Sidney, was overhauled and sunk near Australia. The Captain and his wife and daughter and the 10 members of his crew were taken prisoner.

By Capt. J. Stanley Cameron, Of the Late Merchant Ship "Beluga."

From off Singapore we practically retraced our steps back through the Java Sea and entered the Indian Ocean on Oct. 9 by passing between the islands of Java and Kanor. We then proceeded to the northward and westward until we arrived on the trade route running from Colombo to Delagoa Bay. Here the Wolf cruised around slowly for a day or so, crossing and recrossing the route at regular intervals.

While lying here waiting for the prey the wireless man told me he could hear several cruisers working their wireless, and that there was one British cruiser patrolling the Straits of Malacca, one at Bombay, two lying in the harbor of Colombo—the Venus and the Vulcan—and another at a naval station in the Mauritius Islands. All this time the "bird"—the Wolf's hydroplane—had been down in the hold undergoing a general overhauling.

One day one of the officers told me that probably in a couple of days they would pick up a nice, fat steamer with plenty of food on board. On the morning of Oct. 25, immediately after breakfast, I noticed they were getting the "bird" on deck and assembling it. I asked one of the officers if there was anything doing, and he said, "We have any luck after lunch we shall have fresh meat for supper." About 11 a. m. the bird was finished and the engine warmed up. Suddenly somebody shouted and everybody looked at the horizon. A faint outline of smoke could be seen on the horizon. The hydroplane went up and in half an hour came back and reported a large steamer approaching.

Vainly Tried to Run for It.
Commander Neger shaped his course so as to meet the steamer, but still give him the impression that we were en route from the Cape of Good Hope. At 2:05 p. m. the steamer was right abreast. She was a fine, big class A Japanese passenger steamer, deeply loaded, and I could see passengers on her saloon deck. At 2:07 the Wolf broke out the Imperial Navy flag and signalled for the Hitachi Maru to stop and not to use her wireless; also dropped a shot across the Hitachi's bow. When the Hitachi failed to stop the Wolf fired another shot across her bow, but closer.

The Jap concluded to run for it and started in to use his wireless. He also swung his ship in such a position as to bring his gun for submarine defense, a 4.7 quick firer, into action. Meeting the Wolf, he opened fire on her in dead earnest. One six-inch shell from the after gun struck the Hitachi and exploded just under her gun, killing six Japs and blowing the balance of the gun crew into the water. I saw one Jap in particular hoisted high into the air above the smoke of the explosion and he was spinning around like a pin-wheel.

Another shot from the after gun put the gun on the Hitachi out of commission altogether, and killed another man. In the meantime forward, the Wolf had succeeded in putting a 4.5 shell through the wireless room, where the operator was working. This shell went through one side of the room, passed between the operator and his "set," cutting one of his aerial leads in two, and out through the opposite side of the room, decapitating a man standing outside. This shell eventually hit a ventilator shaft, ripped it to pieces and knocked a man down in the engine room so hard that he afterward died of internal injuries. There were several more hits, one on the waterline in No. 4 hatch, two more in the stern and one in the wheelhouse on the bridge. About this time the flying machine came along and tried to drop a bomb on deck forward, but missed, the bomb exploding when it hit the water just ahead.

Steamer Surrendered.
By this time the Japanese Captain decided he didn't have a chance, and stopped the vessel, while the Wolf sent a prize crew on board. In the meantime, the passengers and crew had managed to get clear in the lifeboats, which were picked up and the people taken on board the Wolf. There were 70 odd passengers, first and second class, among them six women and one little black girl. They were a sorry looking sight as they were on board the Wolf. Many of them were only half dressed, being just awakened from their afternoon nap by the cannonading. Over 100 of the Japanese crew came along with the passengers.

The Wolf could not accommodate such a large addition of prisoners, without making quarters for them, so they had to live and sleep on deck for three days, when they were transferred back to the Hitachi. The Hitachi Maru had altogether 16 killed or died of wounds. The Wolf incidentally lost her fresh meat for supper because one shell had wrecked the refrigerator plant and spoiled all the fowl and fresh meat. The Wolf and the Hitachi now steamed to the southernmost group of the Maldiva Islands, arriving there on Sept. 27. The vessel tied up alongside and coal and cargo were transferred from the Hitachi to the Wolf. It seemed a pity to me to see the thousands of bales of silk, goods ladies' blouses and silk kimono's being dumped from one hold to another and trampled up. When the Hitachi was finally sunk, there were a couple of thousand tons of expensive Japanese lingerie and other ladies' wear and miscellaneous department store merchandise sunk with her. The mermaids must have had some bargain sale.

Transferred to Hitachi.
On Oct. 1 we were transferred from the Wolf to the Hitachi along with all the rest of the "top side" prisoners. Our quarters on the Hitachi were splendid. We felt heir to the bridal suite. It seemed mighty good to sit down to a regular table with a white cloth and napkins again. I will never forget my feeling as we sat there for the first meal, waiting for the white-coated Jap waiter to bring on the food. I could almost feel myself getting up from the table with that satisfied, contented feeling amidships.

Soon the waiter came and set before us each a plate containing two ordinary soda crackers or ship biscuits, with a poor, lonely God-forsaken sardine stranded on top. This and a cup of the regulation "near" coffee comprised our first evening meal on the Hitachi Maru. For the following morning's breakfast we had porridge with kerosene spilled on it. Absolutely unpalatable. For dinner, rotten meat with good potatoes, water—or soda water if you had money to buy it with—and in the evening canned crab and crackers. In the meantime our commander, Lieut. Rose, was having a banquet in his rooms with his brother officers of the Wolf. Skipper Dined Like a Prince.

On the Hitachi it was noticed that Rose very seldom made his appearance in the dining room at meal time. Quite frequently at meals one of the Australian passengers who belonged to Lieut. Rose's bridge play-

Spring Find You Worn and Achy?

DO YOU feel dull, tired, achy all over—back feel as if it would break? Are you "all played out"—feel as if you just can't keep going? Then it's time you looked to your kidneys! Winter with its chills and changes throws a heavy strain on the kidneys. Spring finds you full of mysterious aches and pains; you are nervous, dizzy, irritable and "blue." You may have kidney irregularities, too. Don't wait! Help the weakened kidneys before serious kidney trouble takes hold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many St. Louis people.

Read These St. Louis Cases:

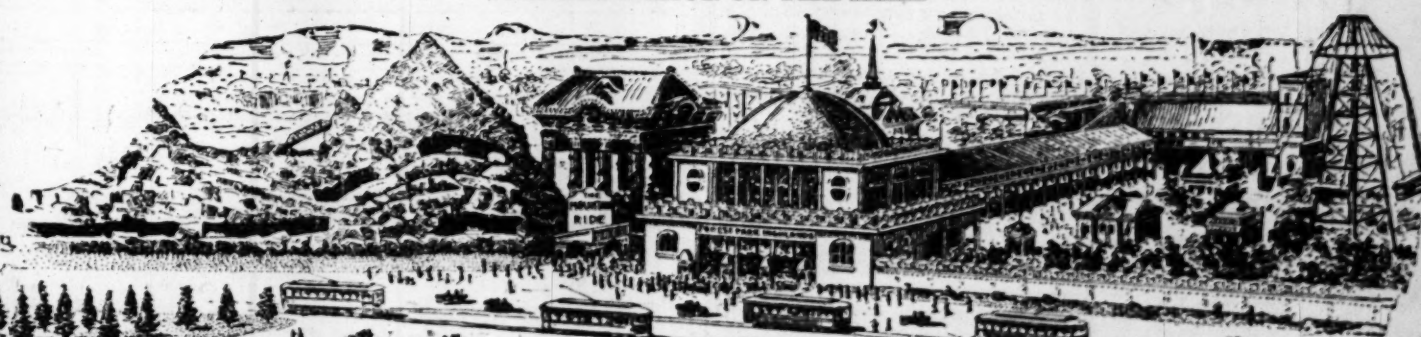

Virginia Avenue	N. Vandeventer Avenue	Delor Street
Mrs. G. M. Humphrey, 2609 Virginia Av., gave the following account of her experience May 9, 1916: "I have had occasional attacks of backache, but have used a box or two of Doan's Kidney Pills and have soon been relieved. I always keep Doan's on hand to use when I have any slight return of that trouble and they have never failed to give me the best of results." On May 15, 1917, Mr. Humphrey said: "I have every bit as much confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I recommended them before. Sometimes when I have caught cold I have noticed a slight return of the trouble, but Doan's have never failed to give me prompt relief."	Mrs. C. Zoellner, 2409 N. Vandeventer Av., says: "I take Doan's Kidney Pills every spring and fall as a preventive of kidney trouble and they keep my kidneys in good condition. When, at first, Doan's I was in a run-down condition from overwork which brought on kidney trouble. My kidneys did not act right at all. My friends told me to try Doan's Kidney Pills so I got some at the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and they soon cured me of the attack." Statement given May 5, 1916. On May 10, 1917, Mrs. Zoellner said: "I think as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I recommended them before. I have never had any trouble with my kidneys since."	Henry J. Hausmann, 4463 Delor street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been an old standby with me for years, and they have always given me good results. I have done a lot of hard work in my time and often strained my back while lifting. This has brought on severe attacks of backache. I have had to lay off work and have been almost as helpless as a child. My kidneys have acted irregularly, too. I read of Doan's Pills and bought two boxes at Wolff-Wilson's Drug Co. They soon ended my trouble and I have always relied on them ever since and they have always cured me."
Lincoln Avenue	S. Dillon Street	Whittier Street
Mrs. J. B. Zarcor, 2553 Lincoln Av., says: "I have been subject to backache when I have taken cold or have overworked. Doan's Kidney Pills have always quickly relieved me. I have given Doan's to our little girl and they have corrected trouble due to kidney weakness."	M. F. Pierce, butcher, 1006 S. Dillon street, says: "About four years ago I was taken suddenly with a bad attack of kidney trouble, and for about a week I couldn't walk because my back was so lame. The pain started the minute I stood up and I had to use a stick to get around. My kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills were so well recommended I tried them. It was no time before they brought me relief and after I had taken two boxes the trouble had entirely left me. I have never had a return attack since."	Mrs. Lizzie McCarthy, 2510A Whittier street, gave the following account of her experience June 1, 1916: "My back was weak and I had soreness over my kidneys. Mornings I was so stiff and lame across my loins that I found it hard to dress myself. I felt nervous and I could do anything. My appetite was poor. My head ached, dark specks floated before my eyes and I had dizzy spells. My kidneys did not act right at all. Doan's Kidney Pills removed all that trouble and I felt like a different person." On May 11, 1917, Mrs. McCarthy said: "I have never had any return of kidney trouble since giving my former recommendation for Doan's Kidney Pills."

HOW GERMAN RAIDER CAPTURED JAPANESE SHIP HITACHI MARU

Here's A Gentle Laxative For Elderly People

A daily free movement of the bowels becomes a serious problem as you step from middle-life into old age, and much dependence can no longer be placed on nature herself. The bowels find artificial aid necessary.

The stronger the physique, as old people soon learn; the greater the contraction of the bowels thereafter, and so the wise purposely avoid salt waters, pills and other harsh purgatives. Many have learned to place absolute reliance on the gentle but positive action of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It produces an agreeable movement as nearly natural and free as high pharmaceutical skill can make it. Thousands use it regularly, in the small dose prescribed, and keep themselves in fine health and good cheer, and entirely free from constipation.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

NO INCREASE

In spite of enormous increased laboratory costs due to the war, the manufacturers of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are sacrificing their profits and absorbing the war taxes, so that this family laxative may remain at the low war price of 50c and $1 a large bottle. So sold by druggists for 26 years.

Women Delighted—Many Astonished by Quick Action of Parisian Sage.

Here's good news for men and women whose hair is falling out, whose scalps are covered with dandruff and itch like mad. Judge & Dolph Drug Co. or any good druggist can now supply you with the genuine Parisian sage (liquid form), which is guaranteed to quickly, surely and safely abolish every sign of dandruff, stop itching scalp, and falling hair and promote a new growth of money refunded.

Thousands can testify to the excellent results from its use, some who feared baldness now glory in their abundant hair, while others who suffered for years with dandruff and itching head, got rid of this same home treatment. No matter whether bothered with falling hair, gray hair, matted, stringy hair, dandruff or itching scalp, try Parisian sage—you will not be disappointed. It is a scientific preparation that supplies all hair needs. The first application will make your hair and scalp look and feel 100 per cent better. If you want thick, lustrous hair and lots of it, by all means use Parisian sage. Don't delay—begin to stop itching scalp, falling hair and promote a new growth of money refunded.

name each day on paper that speaks how much you eat. The fact, the German chief engineer and mate used to eat at the same table as we did, and used to complain of the food being inadequate. One night the chief engineer took the matter up with Rose and told him a few truths. Rose said it was too bad and that he didn't know anything about it, but would straighten it out. The engineer told Rose that if he cut out some of his private champagne suppers and looked into what the rest of us were getting it would not be necessary to make these complaints.

My wife at this time was convalescing rapidly and regaining her strength, and it was of the utmost importance that she have sufficient food. Luckily I was able to purchase from one of the stewards a couple of large cans of biscuits, some preserved ginger and an occasional piece of cheese. This helped out a whole lot, although even at that she was undernourished. Little Juanita did not fare so badly as she was given as much as her elders, and being only a child didn't require as much as they.

Stout Supply Cut Off.

At this time it was possible to purchase stout on the Hitachi Maru, which was a godsend to us. A few days after being on board, when ordering stout, I was told that it was all gone. On making inquiries afterward, I found out that Lieut. Rose had stopped its sale and was reserving it along with all the beer and wine for his own use, and for the use of his particular friends, who were all able-bodied men. There were three more women, in addition to my wife, who actually needed something of this description.

The Jap stewards on board were being paid their regular wages by the German Government, but as their Captain was a prisoner on the Wolf and they were away from his authority, they paid absolutely no heed to the prisoners' needs, merely contenting themselves with keeping the Lieutenant well supplied with booze and anything else he wanted. Afterward Rose told me that the service of the Japs on the Hitachi was splendid. I told him that it was rotten and why. Rose merely pulled that Prussian smile of his and said: "What do you expect? You're not first-class passengers, you know." To this I agreed and told him all I wanted was an even break with the rest of the prisoners, or "ex-passengers," as he used to call us.

Last Night a Merry One.

There were some 60 of us occupying the first-class cabin, among whom were many of the original passengers of the Hitachi. We were with one or two exceptions all young people, and despite the short rations we had and the rough experience we had undergone, we managed to have some very enjoyable times, playing deck billiards, quarts, cricket and various card games. In the dining saloon was a piano and some of the Australian chaps were great mimics and had good voices, so we had some very enjoyable evenings.

The last night we were on the Hitachi in particular, the Japs came to life and were almost human. One of them unlocked a large closet filled with masks, costumes, false beards and hair used for amateur theatricals. Every one dressed up as various characters and we had a regular variety show. Among the offerings were clog dancing, sword dancing, the good old cake walk and the Texas Tommy. The last number we called the "Hitachi Rag," and was danced by everybody. It consisted of the regulation "rag" varied by every step imaginable, including high and lofty tumbling. All during the performance the German sailors on the Hitachi were peering in through the port holes and lining the alley ways and steps, enjoying the show almost as much as the rest of us.

All the Germans Danced.

But the Hitachi rag was more than the disciplined Teutons could stand. First two of them tried it, and in a few minutes all the Germans were dancing. The news spread to the Wolf and there was a general stampede of Teuton guards and sailors in our direction. For a few minutes we had full charge of the ship, as the Teutons wouldn't stop when their petty officers called them. Shortly the chief officer appeared and made us all stop, saying that it was the commander's orders and that we were "stopping the work of the ship"—to say nothing of undermining German discipline.

All the time that we were laying here among the Maldives Islands—12 days—transferring cargo, the flying machine made regular observation trips twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening. On three occasions it reported seeing steamers passing not more than 50 or 60 miles off, and once it reported seeing a fast cruiser, probably British, traveling along at full speed. This island we were lying at was only 50 or 60 miles off the regular trade route, and I had hopes that some patrolling vessel would blunder onto us, but no such luck, although one night our hopes were raised to a great height.

Mistake Cloud for Cruiser.

Shortly after sunset my wife imagined she saw something in the Western horizon. I got my glasses and, concealing myself so I wouldn't be discovered, had a look. I, too, could see something, but could not make it out; although in about 10 minutes I had another look, and sure enough it was bigger and plainer. Shortly it was discovered by the Germans and an alarm sounded. Everybody was thrown into great excitement and the lines tying the Wolf and the Hitachi together were let go. All of us prisoners ran to our rooms and got our "emergency kits" ready.

Just across the hall from our "bridal suite" there was tremendous confusion. A corpulent British mining expert was rushing around his room in a perfect frenzy looking for a heavy blue sweater he had carefully hung on a peg against just such an emergency as this. Of course, manlike, he blamed his wife for mislaying it (my wife contributes this claim gratis). However, after a few minutes' search one of them discovered that the sweater was where it belonged—on the man's back. As I came out of my room I met "Father" Cross, a veritable giant of a man, and the greatest authority on Chinese dialects in the country—shouting in a great roaring voice: "Bar steward! bar steward! bring me a bottle of whisky quick!" I could hear him mumbling: "You don't get me into a lifeboat."

without a bottle of something to keep me warm. This same man lost his trousers while climbing out of the lifeboat on the Wolf when the Hitachi was first captured. Somebody sent him a package a few days afterward containing an old pair of suspenders, and I think "Father" would have murdered the sender if he could have found out who it was. I have often regretted that the sender did not enclose Lieut. Rose's calling card.

Just about the time I reached the dock there was an order given from the bridge of the Wolf in a very disgusted voice, which was shortly followed by a very choice assortment of cuss words, some of which were in English. I looked to the westward and saw that our rescuing cruiser was only a cloud, and at that time

The Hand of the Hun

Everywhere that hand has reached, it has carried sorrow in its grasp. It has deluged Europe with blood; it has carried contention and death to the shores of the seven seas. At its evil beckoning, black men have slain each other in African jungles; Chinamen have died without knowing why they fought; Turks have massacred Christians; women and children have perished on sea and land. It has sown treason and distrust among all peoples, of all nations.

That hand is reaching toward America---we have heard it from men high in the councils of the German Empire. Just two things stand between us and its evil might: Our Army! And Our Navy! Money is needed for their upbuilding and maintenance---both the Army and Navy; and the money must come from the people. Be one of those who are helping to keep the Hand of the Hun from Liberty's throat! Buy

Third Liberty Bonds

It is seldom one can help a great cause without personal sacrifice. But you can. These bonds are the safest, best investment in the world. They are a first mortgage upon the United States. Every railroad in the country, every homestead, farm or public building, every industry, every income by salary, is pledged as collateral.

If you can't pay cash for your bonds you can borrow a part of the money at your bank, using the bonds as security; or you can buy them at your bank on easy partial payment plan. It is no trouble to buy Liberty Bonds---it is no trouble to pay for them.

18 RECRUITS FOR JEWISH LEGION DEPART

Zionist Flag Carried by Men Who Will Be Trained in Canada and Go to Palestine.

Eighteen St. Louis recruits for the Jewish Legion in Palestine departed from Union Station at 10:15 o'clock last night for Windsor, Ontario, where they will be given training and then sent to Palestine. Jacob Cohen, 5185 Vernon avenue, who left April 15, will join the contingent in Chicago.

The departure of the first unit of Jews was made the occasion of a demonstration similar to those that attended the first departure of drafted men from St. Louis last fall. A parade that formed at the Legion recruiting headquarters, 1507 Franklin avenue, started with 300 marchers, including a brass band and a detachment of Scottish pipers. The procession moved with difficulty because of the throngs that jammed Franklin avenue, and when the procession reached Union Station several thousand persons were in line. The station midway was crowded.

Zionist Anthem Sung.
The crowd sang the Zionist anthem, "Ha Tikvah" (Our Hope) over and over again. Officers of the British recruiting mission stated that more than 100 Jews signified their intention of enlisting for the Legion following the demonstration. Ten recruits for the next contingent already have been signed.

The departing men carried with them a large Zionist flag, a light blue with two darker blue stripes crossing it lengthwise, and in the center the star of David. The flag was of silk and was made by Miss Ida Fiar, 1215 Franklin avenue.

The following telegram from Lord Reading, British Ambassador to the United States, was read:

"I am glad to take this opportunity of sending my good wishes to the members of the Jewish battalions. The Jewish units which are being received on both sides of the Atlantic are a source of pride and interest to me, and I am confident that they will acquit themselves worthily when the time comes for them to take their place in the fight for liberty."

The men who composed the unit, all between 18 and 21 years old, were: Ben Cohen, 4779 Greer avenue; Harry Edlin, 3027 Dickson street; Morris Pearson, 2826 Dickson street; Morris and A. Baskow, 1327 Elliott avenue; C. H. Glapern, 2829 Stoddard street; Abraham Lebin, 821 North Eighth street; M. B. Seligson, 5658 Etzel avenue; Morris Shiman, 1508 Wash street; Sidney Kron, 1259 Garrison avenue; Sam Schuchman, Meyer Ikin, Abraham Moerschen, Dave Weiss, Henry Fugenbaum, Wolf Korabelnik, Isaac Turvoitz and Jake S. Gishes. Sergt. A. A. Allen was in charge of the unit.

10-YEAR-OLD GIRL SPEAKER SELLS $600 WORTH OF BONDS

Margaret E. Gregg Spoke in Department Store and Hotel Dining Rooms With Good Results.

Margaret E. Gregg, 10 years old, a Clark School pupil, went out and sold Liberty Bonds yesterday. She didn't go among her own family and relatives, as many school children do. Instead, she went to downtown department store dining rooms and delivered a little speech of her own composing.

Standing on a chair, she would begin: "Ladies and gentlemen! Soon everyone would be listening to the clear little voice. 'We must all fight,' she said. 'Our boys with their guns and bayonets, and we with our money. Think, think, think of every way you can save and scrape to get money to lend to the Government. Buy bonds until it hurts. It will hurt if you don't.'"

She spoke at the Famous & Barr store, the Grand Leader, Vandervoort's and Hotel Statler, and 10 men bought bonds. Two of them bought $100 worth and the rest $50 bonds, making $600 in all. What Margaret is most proud of is that the men were all strangers to her. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Gregg of 317 De Ballviere avenue.

Real Estate Agents at 241 Louis are Making Home Owning Easier for St. Louisans.

The expert is doing a valuable service to both buyer and seller, in making transactions on "safe investment" plans.

The agent encourages the making of loans to assist the thrifty man in acquiring a home of his own, often upon the payment of only a small part of the cost, with easy payments to follow.

The offers of leading agents of St. Louis appear regularly in the Post-Dispatch.

In handling for sale or for rent properties of the larger owners of the city the agents are presenting offers well worth watching.

As a prospective tenant or home owner, you may profit by these offers.

If you have property to rent or sell, instruct your agent to keep it listed in the Post-Dispatch.

SIEGEL COOPER STORE IS SOLD

CHICAGO, May 1 (By A. P.).—Siegel, Cooper & Co., one of the largest department stores in Chicago, occupying a block in State street, has been sold to the Boston Store for $1,750,000, it was learned today. The purchase covers stock and good will. The store, it is said, will be closed. The Siegel, Cooper & Co. store was reorganized a few years ago after the failure of the Henry Siegel chain of stores in the East.

U. R. STOCKHOLDERS URGED TO TURN OVER SECURITIES

McClulloch Wants Reorganization
Committees to Be in Position to Act if Ordinance Is Accepted.

Richard McClulloch, president of the United Railways Co., has sent circulars to all stockholders of the company notifying them of the passage and signing of the franchise ordinance and calling attention to its provision that the company's capitalization must be reduced to conform to a valuation of $60,000,000. The circular says that before the company accepts the ordinance it is desirable to know what capital value will be established by the State Public Service Commission and whether the commission will authorize an increase in fare rates.

Pending the settlement of these issues, McClulloch urges holders of stocks and bonds to turn over their securities to reorganization committees which have been formed, so that if it becomes necessary the reduction of the company's capitalization may be reduced in accordance with the franchise bill, if its provisions are accepted.

DENVER, Colo., May 1 (By A. P.).—The Colorado Republican State Committee meeting here yesterday to elect a chairman passed a resolution denouncing United States Senator Robert La Follette and demanding his expulsion from the Senate.

STELLA MAYHEW OFFERS NEW SONGS AT ORPHEUM

Marx Brothers Vie With Comedienne for Favor on Lively
Bill.

A lively bill at the Orpheum this week is headed by the popular comedienne, Stella Mayhew, with several new songs and a bright line of comedy. She displays a service flag with one star, for her husband, a Lieutenant in the army. Rivals for favor with the audience are the four Marx Brothers, in a swiftly moving act of song and dance, called "Home Again."

Jimmy and Mrs. Barry have a diverting skit concerning a yokel who is taking a correspondence course in burglary, and Wilfred Clarke puts on a playlet, full of action, called "His Reel 'Trouble'." Ralph Dunbar's Maryland Singers, in Civil War costumes, revive well-loved songs like "Old Black Joe" and "My Old Kentucky Home." The Calkes Brothers are novel dancers, and the Alaska Duo—Arnold Wurtelle and Herbert Herby—close the program with a skillful and attractively staged skating act.

was about five degrees up from the horizon. Later on I kidded some of the German officers about it and they all passed the blame onto somebody else, but just as this cloud fooled me it had fooled them as well. "Father" Cross, however, averred he knew what it was all the time, and that it was only a "sandy" on his part to get an extra bottle of whisky.

Kelly-Springfield

BIG—STURDY—OVERSIZED

CORD TIRES

The name "Kelly-Springfield" has always meant mileage. We didn't dare put out a new Kelly-Springfield Tire until we were sure it would live up to the name.

Are we sure? We are. The mileage in Kelly-Springfield Cords is more than a hoped-for possibility. It is an accomplished fact.

We know what these tires will do because we tried them—not in a testing room but on the road; not with one or two tires, but with 500; not on smooth summer roads, but on rough, frozen, winter roads; not a few hours a day, but twenty-four hours a day; not on light cars, but on heavy cars loaded to weigh 5200 pounds.

Under these severe conditions the average of the 500 tires was 11,725 on rear wheels; 14,000 on front wheels.

When we knew what these tires could do, we said: "You're real Kellys all right," and started to sell them.

Two treads—grooved and non-skid.

CAPT. THEODORE WHITE TO WED IN DENVER

Marriage of St. Louisan Will Take Place in Colorado
Capital Next Tuesday.

An interesting engagement and approaching marriage which has just been made known is that of Capt. Theodore White of the 314th Ammunition Train, stationed at Camp Funston, and Mrs. Edith Hayt of Denver, Colo.

Capt. White is the son of Mrs. T. Ewing White of 411 North Newstead avenue and a brother of Kelton White, who married Miss Blanche A. Turner less than a year ago. He was graduated from Cornell in the class of 1910 and has been one of the popular beaux of society.

The wedding will take place in Denver on Tuesday, and Mrs. White, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George Johnston Atkinson of Columbus, O., who is her guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Kelton White, will depart Sunday for Denver to be present.

Social Items

Mrs. Archer O'Reilly of 6369 Berlin avenue was hostess at a luncheon today to the active members of the Morning Choral Club. This is the last social gathering of the year and an interesting diversion was offered in the form of a farce comedy which was enacted upon the lawn.

This comedy is based on the story of "Faust," and Mrs. William McCandless had the role of Marguerite. Faust was taken by Mrs. A. D. Chapelle, and Mrs. John Morrison was in the role of Mephistopheles. Mrs. Hector Pasmegog impersonated a Gypsy Fortune-teller, and Mrs. John H. Moorehead sang comic songs dressed as a clown.

A knitting song was sung by Mrs. Macey, and various other forms of entertainment constituted the program, which was one of the cleverest given by this organization, so noted for its original, clever and artistic work.

The officers for the ensuing year were announced during the afternoon. Mrs. O'Reilly is the retiring president and is succeeded by Mrs. Joseph W. Winkler. Mrs. Joseph Fuqua is the vice president, Mrs. John Morrison treasurer, Mrs. W. O. Reeder corresponding secretary, Mrs. William T. Jones second vice president, Mrs. Arthur Schiller librarian, and Mrs. Taylor Bernard in charge of publicity. Mrs. W. O. Reeder was the chairman of the committee in charge of today's program.

Yesterday was the first ladies' day of the season at the Bellevue Country Club and proved a great success. A large number of members' wives and their guests were present, and luncheon was followed by bridge and dancing. Among those who entertained parties were Mrs. Edwin T. Nugent, W. G. Yanis, Kenneth Green, Robert Holmes, John Ballard, Oliver Garrison Sr., F. A. Luytens, Charles Whitehead and others.

Mrs. Tom K. Smith of 4238 Lindell boulevard, formerly Miss Jane Wells, is one of the prominent young matrons taking an active part in working for the success of the Junior League rummage sale which opened today.

Mrs. Henry O'Hara of 4456 West-inster place departed yesterday for Washington, D. C., to join her husband. Mr. O'Hara has just been ordered to Camp Funston with the field artillery and will depart for there soon.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Brickey are now at home at 1516 Lawrence avenue. Mrs. Brickey was Miss Grace Glidewald before her marriage last December. She was hostess at a bridge party yesterday in honor of Miss Mildred Fischer, whose engagement to William Harrison Comfort was one of the recent announcements.

Mrs. William P. Durkan of 376 Walton avenue is now convalescing from a severe illness.

Mrs. Joseph W. Folk, who has been stopping at the Planters Hotel since her return to the city, will depart Sunday for Washington, D. C., to remain about a month.

An engagement of interest which was formally announced last Wednesday, is that of Miss Edith Steinmeyer and Walter Ward Payne of Norfolk, Va. Miss Steinmeyer entertained the Sewing Club, of which she is a member, and a few intimate friends, and the announcement was made in the form of a novel story read by her 6-year-old cousin, Elise Sieker of Hawthorn, N. J., who is here on a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. T. Sieker. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Steinmeyer of 3842 Flora boulevard, and is prominent in South side circles. Mr. Payne is the son of Mrs. Walter T. Payne and the late Maj. Payne of Norfolk, Va. No date for the wedding has been set.

Mrs. Homer Hisey of Webster is enjoying a stay in New York, and is a guest of the McAlpin.

Invitations have been sent out by the Juvenile Department of the Norse School of Expression for an entertainment to be given by them on Wednesday evening at the Toy Theater in the Musical Art Building. The program will consist of piano numbers, readings, costume dances and planologues, and those taking part are the youngest in the school.

Mrs. Max A. Goldstein of 4060 Washington boulevard will be hostess tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to the volunteer workers for the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra Guarantee Fund. The following have volunteered and are expected to be present:

Mmes. Ernest Stix, Hudson E. Fridge, B. J. Tausig, Joseph Glaser, T. S. Bach, Louis Wertheimer, Francis G. Eason, Paul V. Janis, Charles A. Stix, Ewing Hill, M. Steinfield, Lee Sale, A. A. Moll, Victor Ehling, Charles M. Rice, Norman C. Wolff, W. J. Romer, Charles C. Allen I. Sallinger, Ernest Jonas, Leonard Hirsch, Horace Rumsey, Walter Koken, W. E. Sauer, Harry Ackerman, Lizzie Drey, W. K. Stanard, J. A. Shoemaker, Theo. Conzelmann, Mamie F. Walden, Greenfield Sluder, Helen Over, Wallace Renard, Eugene Oppenheimer, Ames Cushman and T. A. Meyenberg; Misses Clara Blattner, Gladys Flarsheim, Letitia Parker and Clara Wullner.

A Women Is As Old As She Looks

A man may be considered young at 60 if he feels and looks well. A woman wrinkled at 30 or 35 is invariably considered old. Wrinkles are woman's heritage; but that is no reason why their annoying appearance cannot be prevented. All that is required is a little attention. Stop in at Judge & Dolph Drug Co., 315 Olive st., Enderle Drug Co., Grand av. and Olive st., Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., 234 Washington av.; Knicker Drug Co., 501 Franklin av., or any first-class druggist, and ask for a bottle of Unit. Each evening before retiring apply Unit with absorbent cotton and massage the face gently. The effects of this unit oil preparation will stimulate and smooth the skin and eradicate the annoying wrinkles. Unit is a pure nut oil liquid (not a cream or paste)—delicately perfumed and guaranteed not to cause the slightest hair growth. Beauty Specialists everywhere are giving treatments with Unit, recognizing its wonderful benefit to the complexion.

MORALS OF MEN AT FRONT GOOD, GIPSY SMITH SAYS

Evangelist, Here to Make Two Addresses, Declares Reverence and Response Is Shown to Religious Appeals.

WHAT BOYS WILL EXPECT IN FUTURE

Asserts There Will Be a Reconstruction in Church and Business When Soldiers Come Home.

Gipsy Smith, English evangelist, arrived in St. Louis this morning to address two gatherings in the interest of the International Y. M. C. A. propaganda campaign. W. Gordon Sprigg of the British National Y. M. C. A. headquarters accompanied him. His first scheduled address was before a luncheon gathering at the Mercantile Club, and he will speak in Moulah Temple, Lindell boulevard and Vandeventer avenue, tonight, to the public.

Gipsy Smith, who is the Rev. Rodney Smith, is of gipsy parentage, and did his first religious work in the Salvation Army. He is a singer as well as a speaker, and the revival which he conducted in the Coliseum early in 1909 was probably the largest work of evangelism which has been done in this city since the days of Moody and Sankey.

He has spent two years and eight months among the British soldiers, mostly in France, though some of his work has been at the British training camps. He wears the purple ribbon of the Order of the British Empire, bestowed by King George on non-combatants who have performed notable service. He said to a Post-Dispatch reporter at Hotel Jefferson this morning that his present tour of the United States was not only for the purpose of telling people what they should do now to help the boys, but what the boys are going to expect of them in the future.

Reconstruction After War. "When the boys come back," he said, "they are going to expect reality from us home people who go to church. It's all right to sing 'Keep the Home Fires Burning,' but will we be ready for the boys when they come home? When they come, depend on it, there will be a reconstruction in the church and in the world of business, which includes that of politics.

"Some of the men at the front are going to the devil, it is true, but so they would do at home. The impressive fact is that there are tens of thousands who, without making any profession of religion, are leading beautiful, clean lives. I don't say that is enough; they should have religion, too, but the moral condition of the soldiers—I am speaking of the British soldiers—has been a great surprise.

"Some of our people thought our young men were materialistic, with no thought or care for the best things. But the moment the call of a great ideal came, the young men proved to us that the work of mother and father, of the church and the Sunday school, had taken deeper root than we thought. We Y. M. C. A. workers and chaplains, from the home camps and in France, have found everywhere reverence and response.

"Lots of the men swear, it is true," he said, "but the remarks of Private Peat and others on this subject were mentioned, 'but there are lots more who don't. Those who swear will tell you, if you ask them, that it has no meaning, and that they know they oughtn't to do it. Then cut it out,' I say to them. Those who swear in the army are those who learn to swear at home, and that is another matter for our home people to remember.

"I haven't been much among American soldiers in France," he said in answer to a question, "and you can see something of the proportion of the Americans to the British troops in France from the casualty lists. Your casualty lists come 50-odd at a time; ours in the tens of thousands. But the American soldiers are increasing in number all the time, and they are most welcome.

The evangelist said he had done many things in the camps besides making public addresses. "I've washed dishes and swept," he remarked. "They don't ask you to do those things, but the man who doesn't take the religion of service out there with him hasn't much to offer to the soldiers."

The present tour, which began March 27, and will end May 29, includes 40 American and Canadian cities.

DETROIT PLAYERS SEE CLOSE RACE IN JUNIOR LEAGUE

Believe National League Fight, Though, Is Over Now With Giants in Front.

TIGERS CONCLUDE SERIES

Oppose Browns This Afternoon—Cleveland Opens Four-Game Stand Tomorrow.

A majority of the Detroit players, who are here to wind up their series with the Browns today, believe that the A. L. race is a two-club affair. They admit that Chicago, facing the loss of only one man in the draft, and the Red Sox, who are immune, have the best chance to win the bunting. As for the National, they can see nothing but the Giants. Perhaps this is due largely to the fact that last year's champions have won 11 of their 12 starts. But another very good reason advanced is that about a dozen pitchers who were more or less effective against the Giants last season, will not oppose them in 1918.

The list of pitchers who have either gone to war, to the minors or become members of the Giants themselves includes Jeff Pfeffer, Grover Alexander, Dick Rudolph (a holdout), Leon Cadore, Sherrod Smith, Marvin Goodwin, Fred Toney, Eppa Rixey, Jimmy Lavender, Jess Barnes, Chief Bender and "Dutch" Ruether.

These hurlers succeeded in winning 18 games from the Giants last season. The champions finished the season with a record of 9 wins and 10 losses, and had they not lost their 13 games, would have compiled a mark of 116 and 38. Such a record would have enabled them to tie the winning record of Frank Chance's Cubs of 1906, who won 116 games and lost 36.

Records of Absentees.

The records of the pitchers who opposed the Giants last year, but whom the champions will not be called upon to face this season follow:

Alexander	W. L.
Rudolph	10 10
Pfeffer	10 10
Smith	10 10
Goodwin	10 10
Toney	10 10
Rixey	10 10
Lavender	10 10
Barnes	10 10
Bender	10 10
Ruether	10 10

Madison School Scores 47 Runs

Amad Holds Longfellow to Two Hits and One Run While Mates Get 39 Safeties.

The Madison School team opened its season in Group C of the Public School Baseball League yesterday by walloping Longfellow, 47 to 1, at Flower Grove Park. While Pitcher Amad held the losers to two hits and one run, his mates piled up 39 safeties.

In the other classes, Shaw won from Wyman, 9 to 3, while Sigel was a victor over Sherman, by a 19-3 score.

SHAW BEATS WYMAN

WYMAN, 9 to 3. Shaw, 19 to 3.

George Sisler has handled 89 chances faultlessly at first base in the nine games the Browns have played thus far. The outfielder has started out in great fashion and some of the chances he has been called upon to accept have been of the most difficult type.

Johnny Tobin has driven the most runs across the plate for the Browns thus far, despite the fact that he is leadoff man and has played less than the full number of games.

Tobin's total of runs driven over is six, one-sixth of the total number scored. Les Nunamaker, the big catcher, is second with five.

Fritz Maisel, with four in as many games, has the highest average of run scorers among the Browns. Fritz's average is perfect, 1.000. Joe Gedeon has crossed the plate twice more than Maisel, but has participated in five more games than his brother ex-Yankee.

CLEVELAND OUTHIT 2-1 BY SOLDAN IS WINNER IN HIGH SCHOOL GAME

Although outhit, 2-1, the Cleveland High School team yesterday afternoon defeated Soldan, 1-2, in the interscholastic League contest at High School Field. It was the first time Cleveland has beaten the West Enders in baseball in four campaigns. The defeat puts the 1917 champions in last place.

One of the surprises of the contest was the pitching of Hunter with men on bases. Soldan put the first man on in eight of the nine innings, but only twice were the West Enders able to score, in the third and sixth innings. Hunter walked three and fanned two. Errors figured in each of the five runs scored by Cleveland.

This afternoon McKinley and Central, the two unbeaten teams in the race, are scheduled to play. Hager or Pries for McKinley and Graves or Ellis for Central will be the pitchers.

MACK WILL ADMIT MEN IN SERVICE WITHOUT PAY

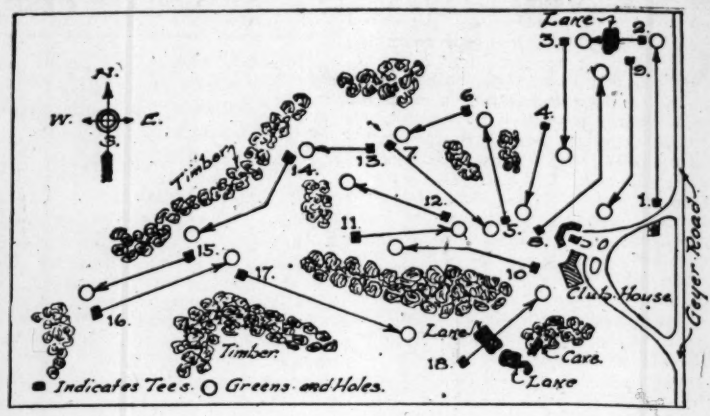

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—All service men in uniform will be admitted free except the war tax to one game in each series to be played this season at Shibe Park, the home of the Philadelphia Athletics. The war camp community service announced yesterday that the local American League club had made this offer, and that it had been accepted.

The management also offered the use of the park for Sunday games between service teams if the Mayor will permit them to be played, and other recreation for men in the service.

Willard-Fulton Bout, Barred 6 Times, May Never Take Place

Attitude of State Governors Is Against Holding Contest on Independence Day; Willard's "Hog-It-All" Policy and 10-Round Bout Displease Fans.

By John E. Wray.

JESS WILLARD awoke this morning too late. Old Man Opportunity had knocked at his door in vain, for several weeks, but became disgusted at last and walked away without Jess having ceased to snore. His dreams of fame and fortune—in proportions of 1/4 and 99/100, respectively—abruptly departed, however, after perusing the morning news wherein it was set forth that the Governor of Utah had closed the door against the big fight.

Utah is the sixth state to take a stand against the holding of the contest on Independence Day. It is now probable, owing to the growing sentiment against Willard's evident "hog it all" tactics and his unwillingness to fight more than 10 rounds, that no state in the Union will stand for the title contest on the date agreed upon—July 4.

Willard has no man's sympathy except that of his immediate followers. At no time has he shown the spirit of a champion, interest in the profession through which he was lifted from obscurity, or any further championship anxiety than a desire to fight as little and make as much as possible.

Bout May Never Take Place.

If Willard fights for his title in the future it will probably be on some other date than July 4 and for more than 10 rounds. At this time, with the country sinking into the war up to its armpits and everybody engaged in the great patriotic struggle, there is a strong probability that the contest will never take place.

For example, the Germans still maintain horse racing among other relations. The subject of Mr. Ernest Lionel Pike, an Englishman, interned at Ruhleben in 1914 and recently sent home to London, wrote in the course of an article in the London Daily Mail:

"Some racing and trotting still goes on in Germany, and perhaps our middle-aged specimen may spend his holiday at a race meeting or trotting track. But he must travel there by underground or ordinary train, for there are no taxicabs or horse vehicles.

"The object of horse racing and of the support of the press, daily newspapers, theaters and music is for the purpose of 'stimulating'—that is to say, to maintain the morale of the people."

The influence of sport must be considerable in the estimation of military authorities when horses can be spared for racing and not for business purposes.

Foxy C. Mack.

That Connie Mack is far-sighted is being shown daily in the performance of Veau Gregg, the pitcher who came to him with $60,000, in the deal that took Joe Bush, Schang and Strunk to the Red Sox. Schang is proving every whit as good a pitcher as Bush—who was never better in his life than now.

Gregg against strong teams has allowed an average of only four hits per game in four games twirled.

Connie thus has received almost as good as he gave, has gained $60,000 in addition, and will be under salary obligations about half as great as those he unloaded on Boston.

GOLF CHAMPION TO COMPETE TODAY AT SUNSET HILL CLUB

Opening of Complete 18-Hole Links Will Be Celebrated in Match With W. K. Wood.

COURSE IS VERY SPORTY

Bogey of 81 and Par of 71 Indicates Low Scores Will Be Possible for Experts Only.

Charles "Chick" Evans, national amateur and open golf champion of the United States for the past two years, and who is certain to hold his honors for still another year, owing to war conditions, will parade his remarkable stock of golf accomplishments before a big gallery at Sunset Hill Country Club this afternoon, when he will play the 18-hole course for the first time.

Evans, opposing Warren Wood, also of Chicago, will play an exhibition match over the newly completed 18-hole course of the club, the entire links being today open to members for the first time.

Evans, who has shown here on many occasions in the past, is tuning up for his second annual round of exhibition play in the interest of the Red Cross, for which he collected a sum said to be $50,000, last year. This year Evans, assisted by other golfers, has planned a drive which it is hoped will result in raising $1,000,000 for war activities.

The United States Golf Association has again limited tournament play to patriotic affairs, and no titles will be decided—a circumstance which will permit Evans to remain unchallenged for still another season.

Greens in Fine Condition.

The greens of the new course were in splendid condition Sunday.

The caddy tournament will be held between Aug. 18 and 19.

DR. MACKLIN IN ARMY.

Dr. L. P. Macklin, one of the best known amateur three-cushion players in the city, has enlisted in the Medical Reserve Corps of the United States Army and expects to be called into active service in a few days.

Dr. Macklin was named alternate with Elmer Farrar in the City Three-Cushion League tournament last winter, and has a wide acquaintance among local billiard players.

TOLEDO PLAYS LOUISVILLE

TOLEDO, O., May 1.—The American Association season will be opened here today by the Toledo and Louisville clubs. Roger Bresnahan, Toledo, president and manager, announced that all ceremonies will be dispensed with this year in line with the war conditions. For a time at least all games here will start at 6 o'clock.

41 WALKS FOR BROWNS

Opposing pitchers have certainly treated the Browns kindly in the matter of bases on balls. Jones' boys have drawn no less than 41 free trips to first base in the nine games they have played. Tim Hendryx is the leader with eight walks. Demmitt, seven, and Maisel, with six, are next in line.

Northwestern Stars Enlist.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Three additional athletes of Northwestern University have enlisted in the Fourth Officers' Training Corps at Camp Grant. It was announced today. They are Martin Lynch, center on the football team and third baseman on the baseball team; Edward George, captain and rush in the water polo team, and Reginald Swartz, breast-stroke swimmer. The makes six athletes who have enrolled this week for training at the Rockford cantonment.

SPORT SALAD BY I. C. Davis

Spring Song.

ANOTHER game has been called off.

Because of chilly breezes; And so we sit around and cough With hacking bronchial wheezes.

We have with us the first of May. As chilly as November.

Perhaps we'll get a breath of spring Along about October.

We do not laugh with glee and sing Because we are so sober;

Perhaps we'll get a breath of spring Along about October.

The weather has us on the run. So, how can we be merry?

Mayhap we'll get a touch of sun Some time in January.

It's nothing less than tempting fate To buck against this raw gust;

Perchance we'll cut a figure 8 Upon the ice in August.

The Psychological Moment.

OUR firemen demand more pay for the first time.

It they do not receive it they will strike while the fire is hot.

Forecast.

For St. Louis—Fair and warmer (coupled), 1-1. Frost, 2-3. Snow, 5-1. Old Sol, 8-5. J. Pluvius scratched.

Owing to an error of commission by Bruno Betzel, the Reds relieved the Cards of another game. Bruno's error consisted of his failure to make a hit with a man on second in the ninth inning.

The announcement that Zach Wheat was on his way to join the team enabled the Dodgers to kick the upholstering out of the Braves. No more Wheatless days for the Robins.

The Browns' one-game winning streak was temporarily halted yesterday, pending repairs to the weather stripping. The ornish will be resumed at 3:30 this afternoon. J. Frost and J. Pluvius permitting.

The Giants continued their winning streak, noting out the Phillies in an exciting sixth inning rally. Score: Giants 15, Phils 0.

The three-cornered fight between Jack Dempsey, Billy Mike and John the Barber is set for St. Paul on Friday night. Trained by Abe Brumberg, it is thought that the Barber will set a pretty fast clip and win by a whisker.

Who's the Joke On?

Joe Benz played a joke on a colored porter down in Mineral Wells. Joe slipped the colored gent a quarter and told him to run down to the depot and see if his curdle ball had come in. The porter returned and reported that the curdle ball hadn't arrived. Whereupon everybody had a good laugh at Joe's expense.

The woods are full of porters who will let you play two jokes on 'em for a quarter. Joe was stung.

"Class D League May Give Up the Ghost." Headline. Boy, page a fighting spirit!

Miller Huggins sent Bob Connery to St. Louis to see if he could do some more trading. The rabbit surely is a glutton for punishment.

Fred Mitchell has resumed his regular occupation of farming out. Charley Pechous. Fred will make a farmer out of that boy yet.

A Great Backstop.

Ivey Wingo has bought $7000 worth of Liberty Bonds and says he is going to invest every dollar he can make in war loans. That's backing up Uncle Sam.

LES NUNAMAKER EXPECTS CALL TO COLORS IN FEW DAYS; EXAMINED TODAY

Just when his injured athletes are on the mend, another blow, which may be more severe than any yet suffered, has fallen on Fielder Jones. It is the probable loss, within a very few days, of Leslie Nunamaker, the big catcher who came here from the Yankees during the winter.

Nunamaker is in Class 1A of the draft. He received permission to take his physical examination here and here he will do this morning. Just how soon he will be called he does not know, but the fact that he has been ordered to take his physical test leads Nunamaker to believe he will be wanted in a very short while.

RED SOX SIGN TRUESDALE

BOSTON, May 1.—The Boston American League baseball club announced yesterday that it had signed Frank Truesdale, an infielder from the Toledo club of the International League. Truesdale is at Santa Rita, New Mexico, and will join the club in New York next week.

CARDS LOSE FIVE GAMES IN 6 DAYS BY 1-RUN MARGIN

St. Louisans Staged a Big Rally in Ninth, Which Fell Short by Single Tally.

PINCH HITTER LACKING

Betzel, Up in Ninth, With Two Run on Second, Out on an Easy Grounder.

CINCINNATI, May 1.—The sense of a batter to hit in a much needed run was again evident when the Cardinals lost their fifth game in six days by a margin of one run to the Reds yesterday, 5 to 4. Willy Bruns betzel up in the ninth and, with the tying run on second, on an easy infield roller and the contest was over.

What's more, Manager Hendrick of the Cardinals had no pinch hitter to send in for Betzel, a weak batter who had been used for Pinch Hitter in the eighth, while Smyth, the other other substitute with any major league experience was running in the ninth round, after Smith and Niehoff, the first two batters, had been retired.

The Debtor's Defense.

A MOST persistent creditor, who made himself as objectionable as possible to anyone unfortunate enough to owe him money, actually called on a backward debtor on Christmas day and found him at dinner, busy carving a very fine turkey.

"Now, sir," said the visitor, "when do you intend to pay me?"

"I should be only too glad," was the reply, "but it is impossible. I am cleaned out; I haven't a dollar."

"Why, sir, when a man cannot pay his debts he has no business to be eating turkey like that."

"Alas," said the debtor, lifting his eyes as though deeply affected, "I couldn't afford to keep him."—Os-teopathic Magazine.

The Only Way.

The Carnegie Foundation's recent resolution to the effect that the only way to insure a permanent world peace is to crush Germany," said Capt. W. E. Dame of the Rough Riders, in his New York office, "reminds me of the stocky, well dressed chap in the police station."

"A big, burly drunk had been brought in on a stretcher, and the Sergeant said to the stocky chap rather sternly:

"What have you got to say for yourself?"

"Sergeant," said the stocky chap, "I have merely been acting the part of a peacemaker."

"But, good gracious," said the Sergeant, "you broke six of this man's ribs."

"It was the only way," said the stocky chap, "to get peace."—Washington Star.

Thoughtful.

MRS. SMITH had just put her head outside the front door when Mrs. Jones espied her. "Where did you get that black eye?" inquired the latter.

"Oh, Bill just!"

"Yes; that husband of yours is a brute!"

"Oh, no, he ain't!" and the ill-used wife bridled up. "He's a bit hasty, I'll admit; but after he gave me this black eye he sat holding a cold frying pan on it for an hour to reduce the swelling. Not many husbands would do that, you know!"—Chicago Herald.

No Millennium Yet.

"This war against German autocracy is a righteous war," said a war essayist, "but they who think it is the last war—they who call it the war that will end war—are more hopeful than I dare to be."

"A war to end war! A drunk to end drunkenness! It reminds me of the man who said:

"Well, I've got that anti-noise campaign of mine started in great shape. We parade Saturday night with a steam calliope and three brass bands."—Washington Star.
